Set School Ceremony In Village Spellman Will Visit Saugerties

Frances Cardinal Spellman will officiate at the dedication of the new $304,000 eight room parochial school of St. Mary's Church, Saugerties, Saturday, June 21 at 4 p. m., it was announced today by the Rev. Charles P. Burke, pastor of St. Mary's.

The Rev. Edward Montano, professor of philosophy at St. Joseph's Seminary, Yonkers, and a member of the parish will deliver the dedicatory address.

The ground-breaking was held at the Cedar Street site two years ago on May 27.

The new school already in use consists of eight class rooms, principal's office, doctor's office and cafeteria.

Father Burke told The Freeman today that in another five years, the parish expects to complete the original plans for a 16-room school and an auditorium. Gerard Betz of Kingston is the architect for the school.

The new school situated near the church and other parish buildings is part of an estimated $18,000,000 archdiocesan school program announced in February 1957 by Cardinal Spellman. The 1957-58 construction program will provide facilities for a total of 9,800 students in the archdiocese.

When the original plans for the construction of the school were announced, Father Burke said that he expected the local church would raise about $100,000 of the funds needed to finance the construction program. That would mean that the local congregation would have to seek approximately $204,000 from the archdiocese to complete the project.

Father Burke said the building fund campaign is progressing and that parishioners are continuing payments on their pledges.

No Successor Named To Take Chief's Job

Two days remain before Chief Raymond Van Buren retires from the local police department and the question of a successor remained unresolved today in the lack of any official announcement by the Board of Police Commissioners.

Chief Van Buren retires May 31 after 37 years of service and while an "informal" meeting of the commissioners was held Wednesday neither Mayor Edwin F. Radel nor any of the four commissioners would announce today whether a choice to fill the vacancy has been made.

No Comment Today
The mayor said yesterday's meeting was called to discuss the results of a joint meeting held Tuesday evening with the Municipal Civil Service Commission.

"In light of Chief Van Buren's retirement on May 31 the pending vacancy came under discussion, but I have no further comment," Mayor Radel said.

Commissioners Lawrence A. Quilty, Robert S. Evory, Henry Singer and Henry P. Eighmey—all questioned by The Freeman on the results of yesterday's meeting—said they had "nothing to add" to the mayor's statement.

Parade to Begin Friday at 2 P.M.

The annual Kingston Veterans Association Memorial Day parade Friday will step off immediately following a brief memorial service program in Dietz Stadium at 2 p. m.

Charles J. Saccoman, president of Ulster County Bar Association, will be the principal speaker.

Units and drum corps of the 10 division parade will assemble at the stadium at 1:30 p. m. The parade will proceed downtown to East Strand and Hasbrouck Avenue.

Union members also voted to authorize their leadership to call a strike if negotiations for a new agreement with the Ulster County Contractors Assn. do not succeed. The present contract expires at midnight Saturday.

The membership agreed to continue working for one week after the expiration of the contract if necessary—but only for one week.

The new agreement with the Catskill Mountain Contractors also calls for a 6 cent an hour raise every six months following the immediate 27 cent pay boost. Pension and welfare improvements were also included, the union said.

The union said the carpenters' present wage is $3.45 an hour.

Lefkowitz Open To GOP Bid for Governor's Race

NEW YORK (AP)—State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz says he only aspires to re-election, but he has raised the possibility that he might be interested in the governorship.

Newsman asked Lefkowitz on Wednesday whether he would be interested in the Republican nomination if it were offered.

"I'd be flattered and honored, even with the thought of being considered," he replied.

"I would consider seriously and fairly and make my decision at that time."

Crimie Major Issue
The Republican attorney general said his party will make organized crime a major issue in the fall campaign.

At a news conference and later in a speech before the "Pulse of New York" dinner forum of the National Republican Club, Lefkowitz accused Democratic Gov. Harriman of blocking, for partisan political reasons, efforts by Lefkowitz's office to investigate the gangland convention at Apalachin.

The governor is more interested in frustrating Republicans than in fighting racketeers, Lefkowitz said.

Lefkowitz also hit at Harriman for a reply he gave in Albany to a question whether he would support his old running mates for renomination on the state ticket.

The governor said he had no comment at all on any of the candidates and predicted a wide open Democratic convention.

Ave Raises Doubts
Harriman's statement raised doubts about the renomination of Lt. Gov. George B. De Luca and State Comptroller Arthur Levitt, who were elected with Harriman on the Democratic ticket four years ago.

After 3½ years of association the governor should know whether he wants De Luca and Levitt as his running mates again, Lefkowitz said.

De Luca said at his Bronx home that he was confident he would be renominated again. He added that he didn't have the slightest idea why Harriman has yet to recommend publicly that he run again.

Completion of the current series of free county polio clinics for 2,075 children under 20 years of age brings the total for 1957-1958 to 5,088, it was announced today by Ulster County Department of Health.

The 1958 clinics began in Marlboro and Boiceville on May 20, and concluded in Saugerties, New Paltz and Kingston on May 24.

Receive At Least One
All 5,088 children received at least one of the necessary three shots for complete immunization. Results for each clinic were as follows:

Wallkill, 275; Marlboro, 90; Boiceville, 190; Highland 405; Ellenville 200; Benedictine Hospital 211; Kingston Hospital 367; Saugerties 233, and New Paltz 104.

Dr. Dudley Hargrave, Ulster County health commissioner emphasized that the clinics were made possible by Ulster County Board of Supervisors, who appropriated funds for vaccine and supplies in 1957 and 1958. Participating physicians, who volunteered their services and time without charge, included the following:

Marlboro, Dr. Burton W. Harris; Boiceville, Drs. Charles Beattie, Charles Quinn and Paul LePaige; Highland, Drs. Peter Lordi and Carl Meekins; Ellenville, Drs. Harry Katz, Anthony

Take It Easy, Drivers Advised

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Get an early start, drive slowly and take it easy, Safety Director Michael H. Prendergast advises New Yorkers traveling over the long Memorial Day weekend.

Memorial Day is the first of the warm-weather holidays, Prendergast noted Wednesday, and "unusually heavy or prolonged physical exertion can have disastrous results."

He suggested that motorists use secondary roads, when possible, to avoid the expected crush on the highways.

Ike's Signature Needed to Give Funds for Jobless

WASHINGTON (AP) — Only President Eisenhower's signature was needed today to authorize federal advances to the states for a temporary extension of unemployment benefits.

A bill to permit that action was passed 80-0 by the Senate Wednesday night after all attempts to broaden and strengthen it were defeated. The House passed it May 1.

The bill authorizes the federal government to advance funds to the states to extend by as much as one half the number of weeks in which workers eligible for unemployment insurance may draw benefits.

In most participating states, this would amount to an additional 13 weeks.

The extended payments, at prevailing state rates, are authorized by the bill for weeks of unemployment beginning 15 days after enactment and prior to April 1 of next year.

Insured workers whose benefit rights have been exhausted since June 30, 1957, or such later date as a state might elect, would be eligible for the additional payments.

Participation in the program by each state would be optional.

Senate Votes Measure On 4 Billion for FHA

WASHINGTON (AP) —Senators needed only two minutes Wednesday to shout through a bill aimed at giving the Federal Housing Administration another four billion dollars in mortgage insurance authority.

Now the Senate must await action by the House. Earlier Wednesday the House Banking Committee voted to provide only a billion dollars of new authority.

Out of Money
The FHA announced Tuesday that it had run out of loan insurance authority. Field offices were ordered to stop guaranteeing loans until Congress acts.

This left New York house-seekers out in the cold at a time when a record number were after FHA loans.

The Albany office, which supervises 31 counties in eastern and central New York, reported applications were up 39 per cent in the first four months of 1958, compared with the corresponding 1957 period.

5,300 Applications
A total of 5,300 applications were received at the New York City office in the first third of the year, compared with 2,600 in the similar months last year.

The Buffalo office showed a 21 per cent increase from January to May 28, compared with last year. There had been 2,317 applications, as of Wednesday.

Uncertain on House

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.), who guided the Senate bill to a vote, told a newsman he did not know whether the House would go along with the Senate version, or pass its own.

Rival bills, passed by both houses would have to be settled by a conference committee.

The FHA has asked for four billion.

Excelsiors Lose Truck Till Board Hears Incident Report

Fire Chief James M. Brett told the Freeman today that he has removed the truck from Excelsior Hose Co. No. 4, Hurley Avenue, pending a report to the Board of Fire Commissioners, as the result of an incident involving an alarm in the uptown section Wednesday evening.

The disciplinary action was taken for reasons he could not disclose, Chief Brett said, until he submits a report to the fire commissioners.

The chief indicated the action was the culmination of a series of "comparatively recent incidents" involving the Excelsior station.

The truck has been removed to Central Station, East O'Reilly Street, and placed in service there on a limited basis, the chief said.

Chief Brett's action was prompted, he said, by an incident involving an alarm at 9:18 p. m. at the Bull Market, Washington and Hurley Avenues.

The alarm was sounded when the contents of a fumigating machine in the market gave off a smoke-like color, which a passerby considered to be a fire.

The vapors from the machine had filled the market, firemen reported, but there was no fire.

To Resign If General Loses Vote Appeal Does Not Change Socialists

PARIS (AP) — President Rene Coty is calling Gen. Charles de Gaulle to power with a warning that only he can save France from civil war.

The President announced this action to Parliament today. He said he will resign if the National Assembly refuses to accept De Gaulle as premier.

Goes to Paris
De Gaulle immediately left his country home for Paris.

Coty's unprecedented message was received in the National Assembly with shouts of derision from the Communists and cheers from De Gaulle's on the right. "We find ourselves on the brink of civil war," Coty said.

The Assembly recessed and parties began feverish caucuses. First reports said the Socialists, who hold the balance of power, were still firmly opposed to De Gaulle.

No Alternative: Coty
Coty told the Assembly he could see no alternative to De Gaulle.

He said he intended to designate De Gaulle as chief of government and if the Assembly did not accept him he would resign and turn the presidency over to Andre le Troquer, speaker of the National Assembly and constitutionally the man in line to take Coty's office.

Mourns Weakness
Coty mourned that France, one of the oldest of democracies, was also one of the weakest.

"Thus, if I have passed the traditional limits which were imposed upon my predecessors, I believed myself authorized to do so," Coty said in his first official statement to the Assembly since he thanked it on taking office in 1954.

On Brink of War
"The state does not cease to be divided," Coty said. "Now we find ourselves on the brink of civil war."

The Assembly was packed as Len Troquer, dressed in traditional white tie and tails, read the message.

Tumult Breaks Out
At the end of his speech, tumult broke out in the chamber. The Communists roared disapproval and the Right cheered De Gaulle.

Premier Pierre Pflimlin, ex-Premier Guy Mollet, the Socialist leader, and Interior Minister Jules Moch, the real powers in the outgoing Cabinet, stood expressionless as Le Troquer spoke.

Despite his warning, the Assembly immediately adjourned and the parties went into individual sessions. The first word was that the Socialist opposition to De Gaulle—born of the belief he will form a dictatorship—was not changed by Coty's appeal.

One of Wildest
The scene in the Assembly chamber was one of the wildest of its long history.

The Communists shouted "Fascism shall not pass" and sang "The Marseillaise." On the right, the chamber echoed with cheers and shouts of "De Gaulle! De Gaulle!" and "Vive la Republique."

Coup Is Seen
Officials at Elysee Palace, the French White House, said intelligence sources felt a De Gaulle military coup was only a matter of hours.

This was supported by a warning statement from the Gaullist junta in Algiers that it would react vigorously if De Gaulle's accession to power is further delayed.

Coty has been a firm pillar in the crisis that broke May 13 with the revolt of the paratroops in Algeria.

Influence Is Great
Although he lacks almost any direct powers in government, his influence is great. A blunt warning from Coty, a moderate independent senator when he became (Continued on Page 6, Col. 5)

5-County Council Plans Underway For Celebration

Plans were initiated to establish a five-county Hudson Valley Council to promote and coordinate plans for the Hudson-Champlain Celebration.

This decision was made at an informal meeting in the Governor Clinton Hotel Wednesday night of representatives of Chambers of Commerce and persons interested in promoting the Hudson-Champlain Celebration, from four counties, Columbia, Dutchess, Greene and Ulster. West Point also had a representative present.

The representatives were invited by the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce and Manager Albert Kurtz presided. It was decided to ask each county to name two delegates to an other meeting here on June 18 at which time the Hudson Valley Council would be organized. It was agreed that the organization of a Hudson Valley Council was necessary to promote the Hudson phase of the celebration and be prepared to work with the State Commission on New York State's Year of History now in the process of being established.

Pay Tribute to Unknowns
WASHINGTON (AP) — Gold Star mothers, foreign ambassadors and a hushed stream of plain Americans paid silent tribute today to the Unknowns of World War II and Korea.

None knew who they were, for they lost both their identities and their lives in the nation's two most recent wars. Tomorrow they will be interred alongside The Unknown Soldier of World War I at Arlington National Cemetery.

Today they lay in identical flag-draped bronze caskets on twin black catafalques in their place of honor in their nation's capitol. Every half hour a new wreath was laid before them. Every hour the honor guard of all service forces was changed, and constantly the people single-filed past them in mute homage at the rate of 1,200 an hour.

2 Super Markets

and Empire Super Markets will mean lower operating costs and lower costs of food both to Grand Union and Empire customers," said Shield.

Schaffer said that "the additional opportunities for members of the Empire organization to assume larger responsibilities within The Grand Union Company were an important consideration in our decision to join Grand Union."

"As one of the most rapidly expanding supermarket chains in the nation," said Schaffer, "Grand Union has pioneered so many plans to provide greater opportunities for employees to share in the management and in the benefits of the business that we are pleased that these opportunities will be available to the men and women of our company."

Total to Run 238
Addition of the 41 Empire stores in the Mohawk and Hudson River Valleys, from Beacon and Newburgh north to Glens Falls will bring the total number of markets being operated by Grand Union in New York state to 238.

Says Rail Aid Vital
CANANDAIGUA, N. Y. (AP) — A railroad executive says the government must give direct aid to railroads immediately to avoid the "danger of wholesale railroad bankruptcy."

In an address Wednesday night, William J. Donsbach, manager of industrial development for the Lehigh Valley Railroad, said the government had spent over a billion dollars on nationalized foreign railroads since the end of World War II.

He said "we could have used some of that money here."

He addressed a meeting of the Finger Lakes Mayors Assn. and urged the mayors to demand support from their congressmen for measures to aid the railroads.

If this is not promptly given, there is danger of wholesale bankruptcy "particularly in the east," he said.

The more than 20 mayors agreed in a formal resolution to ask such aid from Congress.

Outlying P-TA Members Are Guests of City Council Monday

Included in the P-TA Council's last meeting for the year Monday night in the Kingston High School cafeteria, was a welcome to P-TA people living in the Consolidated District; a progress report on Consolidation; a panel discussion on the Newburgh P-TA Conference; a view of the past and a look ahead at the future of P-TA work in Kingston.

P-TA people in attendance from the rural areas included Mrs. H. Christensen and Mrs. E. Larkin of Tillson; Mrs. Norman C. Hammond and Mrs. W. J. Burke from Lake Katrine; Leslie Holmberg from Chambers; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holmberg from Zena; Mrs. E. Moss and Mrs. L. Sheldon from Hurley and Albert Fassbender from Port Ewen.

New Council Officers

New Council officers for the 1958-59 year who were presented at the end of the meeting were:

Keron O'Neil, president; Benjamin Schecter, first vice-president; Charles Ellis, second vice-president; A. J. Boyd, secretary and Mrs. Morton Zucker, treasurer.

Mrs. W. Burke, acting as chairman of conference panel, reported that there were about 425 people present from this Central Hudson P-TA District, held at the Crestview Country Club, Newburgh.

Mrs. Burke, attending the program workshop reported several suggestions for making P-TA programs more appealing and more effective; one was planning it in advance, starting on time, involving many people in the work of P-TA and perhaps at the opening meeting in September, meet with the teachers or have a Father's Night in which fathers take complete charge.

Suggests Calendar

Mrs. L. Sheldon who visited in the Council workshop, reported that the object of Councils were to foster better understanding between the educators and the public and to learn how to work together among fellow P-TA people and to concentrate very little if any on fund-raising. Mrs. Sheldon said this group suggested the publishing of a calendar of school and community activities for the purpose of spreading out meeting dates and avoiding ing conflicts as much as possible. Mrs. J. DeVine reported on the publicity workshop mentioning radio, press and P-TA Newsletters as the three most used mediums of reporting and also urged that all news releases be sent to both radio and press promptly and such news be localized using names of your people."

Mrs. Jerry Blair, who has accepted the temporary program chairmanship for the beginnings of a high school P-TA, sat in on the high school workshop. Mrs. Blair mentioned in her report that a P-TA in high school differed from a P-TA in the Elementary School in that the parents worked with the students at the high school level and for the children in the Elementary years. She also reported that the Junior and Senior high P-TA's are together in some communities. High school programs suggested at this workshop included one on military program to inform parents and young people of educational opportunities in military service; another was the inviting of teachers by groups to spread out the teachers' attendance and perhaps a presentation of their type of work with the boys and girls.

Mrs. Blair extended a specific invitation to both resident and non-resident parents to be present at a meeting in June to set up a High School P-TA organization and program.

Other Workshops

Other workshops offered were on School and Community Relations with Dr. Earl F. Soper assisting, Legislation, Presidents' Parent Education and Pre-School, Ways and Means, Home Room Representatives, Membership and Hospitality.

From this area the following people attended this Newburgh Conference: Dr. Soper, Mrs. George Dingee, Miss Mary Polhemus, A. J. Boyd, Mrs. W. J. Burke, Mrs. A. Antenucci, Mrs. M. Englander, Mrs. L. Sheldon, Mrs. J. DeVine, Mrs. J. Brandow, Mrs. J. VanDerzee, Mrs. J. Hofbrauer, Mrs. J. Roosa, Mrs. H. P. Crispell, Mrs. F. Short, Mrs. T. Musialkiewicz and Mrs. R. Gilkey.

Cites Accomplishments

Keron O'Neil, in enumerating the accomplishments of the Kingston P-TA Council over the 2½ years of its existence, said the first six months was a period of getting organized, establishing the By-Laws, receiving of the P-TA charter and the training of leaders and delegates through a series of workshops held at Council meetings. The next full year was devoted to exploratory programs such as the study of consolidation, the study of the idea of the Community College in Kingston, the study of the local Youth Problem, the study and support of local Mental Health Services. These programs served the useful purpose of stimulating community interest for promoting these services. Then the last year's program has been a project type centering around school building needs, discussing reasons for the failure of the J. High bond issue, taking a tour of the city schools to observe the real needs.

The Council also, during this period, gave two life-membership awards, each with a $25 gift to Jenkins Memorial Scholarship Fund; supported Consolidation by heavy advertising and by supplying workers for the polls and tabulation; sponsoring the Dental Aid Revolving Fund for dental care to school children; has provided representation from each P-TA unit to the Board of Education meetings for keeping informed on educational matters.

O'Neil commented, in conclusion, that the P-TA Council had been given a few tests, met a few goals and was prepared now to accept its place in the community of children's work along with older, more established organizations.

Sets P-TA Potentials

Mrs. Raymond Gilkey, outgoing Council president, in setting potentials for P-TA, referred to P-TA's five objects for P-TA's to study, understand and carry out. These objects are: To promote the welfare of children in home, school and church and community; To raise the standards of home life; To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth; To bring into closer relation the home and the school that parents and teachers may cooperate more intelligently in the training of the child; To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Mrs. Gilkey commented that these standard goals had raised the prestige and usefulness of P-TA's to education; that a vital program was P-TA's first strength; that critical thinking put to constructive use was the very foundation of P-TA's; that more respect and encouragement be given to P-TA's officers who have indicated their willingness to serve and that plans be included in the program to give these officers every advantage for leadership training.

ONE IN A MILLION—Edward (Dutch) Sommer stands alone among the nearly one million persons engaged in automobile manufacturing. He occupies his unique status by virtue of being the only glass blower employed by Ford Motor Co., the only auto manufacturer which produces its own glass. Dutch, who has spent 50 of his 63 years in his chosen profession, blows "fishbowls" to be used in laboratory tests. Using a pipe six feet long, he removes a white-hot sample from the molten mass in the melting furnace at Dearborn, Mich. Sommer blows into the pipe and quickly transforms the shapeless mass into a delicate sphere. The "fishbowl" then undergoes purity tests in the plant's quality control laboratory.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Encouraging gains in home and other building contracts are being reported around the nation. And the cash for the construction and for other boosts to the economy isn't all coming from federal agency action in making money easier to get.

Some of it is coming from the marked increase in savings, individual and institutional.

More Funds Available

More lending funds are available from the rise of personal savings in banks and savings and loan associations, from the record gains in insured pension plans, and the rise in life insurance policy assets.

The drop in business demands for loans for expansion and the slide last year in the home building industry have led some to forget that these demands are still strong on a long term average, and that there has been a big build up in demand by communities for funds for civic construction projects and by some industries servicing the growing population.

Construction contracts in the United States last month were 4 per cent higher than a year ago, F. W. Dodge Corp., construction news specialists, report. The residential building category rose 1 per cent in several dwelling units covered.

Industry Going Ahead

Government figures show that despite a slide this year in the feverish pace of business expansion, industry is planning to spend 32 billion dollars for new plant and equipment. This isn't hay, despite the comparison with 1957's record 37 billion dollars.

The investment money is coming from many sources, some from within the corporations out of retained earnings, some from without.

The nation's 520 mutual savings banks report savings rising much faster this year than last. In the first four months of this year deposits rose by 811 million dollars, compared with 442 million in the like period of 1957. Total deposits are now a record 32½ billion dollars, held by 22 million depositors.

More of these assets are going into home building. In April the banks increased their mortgage loans by 154 million dollars. All the sources of savings—banks, insurance companies, pension funds—are in the market looking for good investment risks. This can offer a sound basis for any pickup in home building, in business activity, in industrial expansion.

Rabies Clinics Slated for June

Notice has been received that the Ulster County Department of Health will hold a series of dog vaccination clinics to be held at various sections of the county during June.

Rabies has been found in wild life in Ulster County in 1958 as well as in surrounding counties in both 1957 and 1958.

Since Ulster has been certified as a county where rabies exists, no dogs will be allowed to run at large unless 70 per cent of the dog population has been vaccinated.

The Ulster County Department of Health urgently recommends that all dog owners take their dogs to either the local public clinics or have them privately vaccinated by their own veterinarian.

Methodist Men Organize and Elect Officers

At a meeting of the Men's Club of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, Monday night a new constitution was adopted to form an organization in the church to be known as Methodist Men and a slate of officers was elected for the coming year. The new organization will become a chartered club by the General Board of Lay Activities of the Methodist Church.

Since last May, the Clinton Avenue Methodist group has been organized as a local Men's Club, under the able leadership of Robert L. Bushnell of Hurley, president. As a result of Monday evening's action, the group will now become a part of a national movement in the Methodist Church which has more than 11,000 chartered clubs.

William E. Brown was elected president of the new organization. Other officers are: Harold Metcalf, vice president; Robert Fuller, secretary; James Priest, treasurer and David F. Taylor, reporter.

The new officers of Methodist Men will be installed and presentation of the Charter made at special services to be arranged later.

Organization Group

The adoption of the constitution followed the recommendations of a special committee of the men's group, under the chairmanship of Dr. Claude Walston. The committee also served as nominating committee for the slate of new officers.

Prior to the introduction of the new constitution, retiring President Robert Bushnell introduced Thomas W. Miller, church lay leader, who spoke on the objectives of Methodist Men, the benefits of a chartered organization and its responsibilities. He urged the members to unite in their efforts to develop Christian fellowship and promote Christian understanding. Expressing appreciation to the retiring officers and committees for their devotion and sincerity of purpose, he called upon all for "active, generous, sacrificial support of Methodist Men for the future of the church and its young men."

Warren Smith, in charge of the entertainment, presented "Little known facts about well known men" an interview-type, audience participation program. The Rev. Dr. Clyde H. Snell, minister of Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, was one of the subjects "put on the spot." Clarence Dederick and Richard Osterhoudt served refreshments and shuffle board in the newly decorated Epworth Hall gymnasium concluded the evening.

MEMORIAL DAY THOUGHTS

This is a day set aside to think once again of Americans in the past who loved their country enough to pay out their lives in forfeit.

The sad, sweet strains of "Taps" drift on the breezes of cemeteries for them. Flowery wreaths drift on rippled water in their memory.

These ceremonies can bring us to reality in facing our responsibilities as citizens of this amazing republic.

Foreign visitors, getting their impressions of us from periods of from a few hours to a few weeks spent in the larger cities, frequently go home complaining about our artificiality.

Looking at the surface, it is easy to see where they get their idea.

Our books, our movie and other advertisements could lead them to think that our scarlet lives are merry trips down the sexy path to Hades.

Analyzing our TV fare would lead inevitably to these conclusions: That we are murder-mad. That we worship at the feet of mythical western gunmen who shoot first and mouth twisted moralisms afterward. That in our lives of grasping, grasping we find our greatest dreams realized in handouts of wealth and merchandise paid for only by answering a few questions.

They read the news. Every subdivision of our national structure appears to groan at the very mention of sacrifice. Income tax day is depicted as a day of mourning. Everyone asks special considerations. Each stratum of citizenry, when in trouble, seems to throw up its hands and plead for succor.

Our foreign visitors, looking out over this surface, may get these impressions. But we who know the waters under the surface so well could tell them a different story. It would describe lives of quiet sobriety and parents whose existences pivot about their children and each other. The symbols that float on the surface may be only an indication of the straight and narrow channels which the lives of most Americans follow.

And deep below the surface we know there is a solid stream of devotion to duty and a willingness to shoulder even the most horrid of responsibilities—should the need occur.

Those who pause on Memorial Day for this annual glance backward can shrug off rock and roll and the other curious manifestations which those who criticize us make so much of.

This is still a nation made up largely of stalwart men and heroic women. We need only to look at the crosses in the cemeteries today and count those of the thousands who gave their lives only yesterday, during World War II and the Korean conflict.

Memorial Day is a good day to think about this and we hope that some who think us "decadent" get the message, too.

THE STARS BY NIGHT

A man can go along for quite awhile without looking at the stars. He can leave his house, get into the car and drive some where at night without ever being really conscious of the heavenly panorama that arches above him. Weeks, even months, can go by in this way.

This man, so preoccupied with the hurry and scurry of his living, does glimpse the stars occasionally. He sees them out of the corner of his eye, or perhaps incidentally when he glances up to find whether the sky is cloudy or clear. But he doesn't look at them. He is less aware of the heavens than he is of the pattern of the wallpaper in his living room.

Such a man would do well to pause, some clear night, and spend awhile looking up. This is no fatuous, Pollyanna advice; the act of really looking at the stars can be,

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
STASSEN AND PRETZELS

The defeat of Harold Stassen in his effort to become Governor of Pennsylvania will not shake the Republican Party to its core. In fact, it produced not even a shimmer on the perimeter. Harold Stassen had long ago outlived his usefulness as a political leader, not because he lacks ability but because the march of time has passed him by. Few men ever realize when their day to retire from political activity has come and they invite cruel defeat rather than sit by the bleachers. And cruel defeat usually overtakes them.

Harold Stassen, at a very early age, showed enormous political promise, having become Governor of Minnesota at 31. He brought into the Republican Party a younger generation which was of great value, because after 1932, it looked for a while as though when a Republican died, there would be no one to replace him. Then Stassen became Wendell Willkie's Floor Manager at the 1940 Convention, which was a political error, because Willkie added nothing to Stassen's stature and brought upon him the enmity of both the Taft and Dewey forces who were then already emerging to political leadership.

Subsequently Harold Stassen wandered hither and thither, seeking office which would give him a sounding board and keep him before the public. With the aid of the Pews of Philadelphia, he became president of the University of Pennsylvania, but like Eisenhower at Columbia University, he found academic administration a different kind of chore than it was in those days when Nicholas Murray Butler could make speeches universally and a university build itself into greatness as a result thereof. Today, running one of those schools is a man-sized administrative job and if not attended to, the university sinks into bricks and mortar which are, after all, little more than potential rubble.

Stassen's time to run for the Presidency was in 1952. That was also the year when Robert A. Taft and Thomas E. Dewey should have run against each other for the nomination, thus settling an intra-party feud by a vote on it. But the Republican businessmen decided that they required a more glamorous figure and they made the nomination of Dwight D. Eisenhower possible. Harold Stassen, having nowhere to go, joined the Eisenhower Administration in various capacities.

The President, it is said, took a great liking to him. But Stassen's interest had taken a turn to international relations which, unfortunately for him, is the province of John Foster Dulles. The attempt to operate two State Departments led to all the complexities of a bigamous marriage and in the end, Stassen had to go, as his friends tried to tell him all along.

This would have been a political disaster, had Harold Stassen not developed an unquenchable envy of Richard Nixon, the Vice President, who is constitutionally next in succession to a President who has cardiac difficulties, and who is likely to be nominated in 1960 as a reward for good conduct, despite the President's probable preference of General Gruenther. So far as intra-party cleavage is concerned, the two major factions in the Republican Party are now for Nixon.

So Stassen attempted to have Nixon dumped in 1956. Such a dumping effort is usually done in secret on a dark night in a smoke-filled room by experienced politicians who do not need to use words to express purposes. However, Stassen did it all in the open, like an honest but inexperienced man. He created the impression that he was a fall-guy for one of the most tricky politicians of recent years, Sherman Adams, who, not satisfied with vicariously governing a country, hopes for recognition for himself, a laudable ambition but generally unacceptable.

At any rate, instead of Nixon being dumped, Stassen was and he returned to Pennsylvania to run for Governor, hoping thereby to have a stepping-stone for 1960. He was, however, defeated by an eloquent and competent pretzel-maker, Arthur T. McGorrie, who took Stassen better than two to one and as a politician might say, that is that.

Had Stassen been nominated for Governor of Pennsylvania by the Republican Party, there can be no doubt but that he would have gone into the Republican Convention in 1960 to seek the Presidency. Now, he would be well-advised to, in Congressional parlance, yield. His day is done. (Copyright, 1958, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Stroke and Exhaustion Are Chief Dangers From Hot Sun

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

A letter from Mrs. R. raises the interesting subject of hazards from too much exposure to the sun. Incidentally, this applies to adults as well as to youngsters.

She writes that her 13-year-old son has suffered from exposure to the sun in two different summers. He suffers each time from aches and pains and with a fever of an average of 102 degrees. The amount of exposure was apparently for four hours at 80 degrees.

There are two principal reactions to too much exposure to the sun. The two conditions are commonly called sunstroke and heat exhaustion. Both are serious and in both prevention is better than treatment.

When sunstroke is most serious, the result is complete loss of consciousness. The face develops a peculiar red flush and the skin is hot and dry. Fever sometimes up to 109 degrees or more may be present. Both the pulse (heart rate) and breathing are abnormal. It is a highly dangerous condition.

If the victim can be kept alive for two days recovery is probable. However, one attack increases the susceptibility to heat in the future.

In sunstroke the normal methods which the body has of maintaining its heat regulation seem to be entirely upset. It calls for prompt and even radical treatment.

Heat exhaustion is a less severe reaction to hot sun or excessive heat. It is related to sunstroke and shades gradually into the more serious condition. However, most physicians differentiate between heat exhaustion and sunstroke because the latter is so much more dangerous.

In heat exhaustion, the principal symptoms are dizziness, excessive sweating, decrease in the amount of urine, a feeling of great weakness, paleness and a speeded pulse and rapid breathing.

Victims of heat exhaustion do not usually lose consciousness. Sometimes muscles of the abdomen or the limbs develop pain of cramp-like nature. The mouth temperature is likely to be below normal or only slightly raised.

Heat exhaustion tends to come on much more slowly than sunstroke. Headache, loss of appetite, constipation and muscular weakness may precede for several days the development of characteristic symptoms.

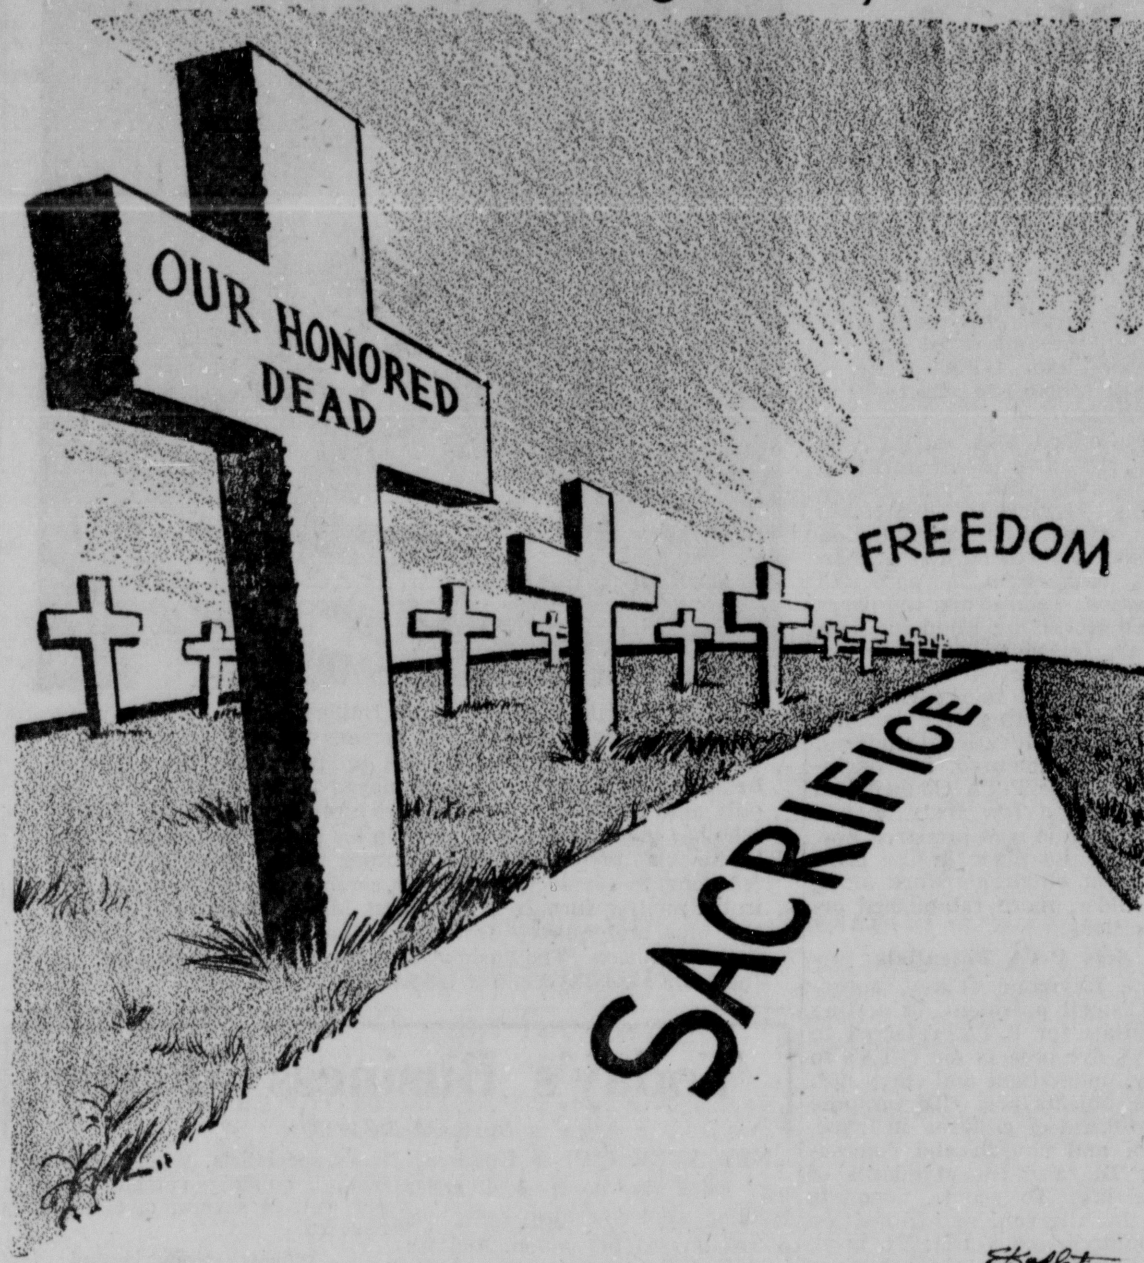

Rest in a cool place for quite a long time may be enough to take care of heat exhaustion, but other measures are often desirable.

Mrs. R.'s son probably suffered from heat exhaustion. He is doubtless more susceptible than the average and every effort should be made to protect him from excessive exposure to the sun in the future.

especially to one who has not done it for a long time, a moving and enriching experience.

A lot of the busy lawn mowers who enriched their grass with fertilizer in April now wish they could find a way to impoverish it a little.

Washington News

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has now spelled out the need for a five-to-ten-year program to keep Latin America from going Communist by U. S. default. This danger is now seen as greater than had been realized.

According to Mr. Nixon's observations, Communist organizers have been concentrating on labor unions and university student bodies. This is why Mr. Nixon insisted on talking to such groups during his tour.

He did not make formal speeches to these gatherings. He answered questions and tried to explain American policies. For he considered these people the "wave of the future" in the important changes now sweeping Latin America.

PERHAPS THE MOST striking example of this is to be found in Chile, a country Mr. Nixon did not visit.

There the Communists control not only the coal, copper and nitrate workers' unions in the major industries. They also control the school teachers' union. Controlling the school teachers' Communists are in the most favorable position to influence student thought.

Chile has been considered one of the more stable governments in South America because it has outlawed the Communist Party. But Chile's economy has been hurt by low prices on its exports and a bad inflationary problem.

It is a combination of factors like these that creates a situation made to order for Communist organizers, in spite of political parties. They work through other parties, or underground.

The basic problem is to raise the standard of living for the vast majority of the people who barely eke out an existence. These are the people for whom the Communists profess such interest and to whom the United States makes little direct appeal.

ECONOMIC PROGRESS — such as has been developed in Venezuela through sale of oil and minerals to the U. S.—is not enough, as Vice President Nixon has now discovered.

It will take a new approach of North American private enterprise, Point Four technical assistance, government loans, cultural relations exchanges and a sound U. S. information program to get across the message that Communism is not the way for the poor to obtain a better life.

Too often in the past U. S. aid programs have had the effect of making the Latin American richer and of keeping one group of aristocrats or another in power. Too often these governing classes are crooks or dictators.

MR. NIXON REPORTED to the National Press Club that he found some evidences of an encouraging progress toward democracy and freedom. He mentioned specifically Colombia and Bolivia. Their leaders he describes as "new intellectuals."

Colombia has just elected Dr. Alberto Lleras Comargo as President. He is a known liberal who formerly served as secretary of the Organization of American States in Washington.

But under the system by which President Lleras will serve, his office will be alternated between Liberals and Conservatives for 16 years. This certainly is not democracy. It could breed corruption and Communism.

Wage-Price Spiral Called Danger for U.S. Economy

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has pointed up again the serious situation that the American economy faces in the uncontrolled wage-price spiral. He is against wage and price controls in "times of peace," but the real question is whether what is happening today is exactly "peace time."

The President said to his press conference today that he had been told by economic analysts that, in many things the nation buys, the price reflects about 80 per cent in labor costs. He added:

"I don't know what the government can do as long as it insists upon the freedom of an economy to establish its own price and wage levels."

But Mr. Eisenhower went on to picture some of the dangers that lie ahead and declared that it is important to keep a "sound dollar," because, as he put it, "if we don't we are going to destroy the value of everybody's pension, everybody's insurance policy, and today through a modern industrialized nation more than ever, the older people, people that have gone past the retirement age, are living on pensions, and if they (the pensions) are going to deteriorate through the constant rise—apparently inevitable rise—in the cost of living we are going to be in very, very serious trouble."

The President's attention was called to the possibility of wage and price controls in connection with the rapidly rising defense expenditures. He said that even the present plans and blueprints will in a couple of years mean rapidly rising costs in the field of procurement of the very expensive weapons. This has been the story right along—Federal budgets rise annually because of higher and higher costs for the same articles that were previously bought for less money.

Stresses Principles

"I would deplore," said the President, "any attempt to fix—in times of peace—wages and prices. I believe we are, to that extent, deserting some very long-term principles that are good for this country. But when you get up against people like this, they begin to believe it as an emergency, then something might have to be done, but I am certainly not ready to predict it now."

Mr. Eisenhower had some tough questions flung at him about the rises in the pay of postal workers and in military pay and was asked if these don't represent a contradiction of his advice to labor and business to "hold the line." But the President said there had been "iniquities" and that, when other economic groups in recent years had gone forward in wages, the postal workers and military had lagged behind.

Obviously any system of governmental control of wages and prices would always take into account such inequities. The debate over how the economy can keep the wage-price spiral from producing unemployment is getting nowhere largely because of the customary assumption that it isn't the function of government to interfere. The logic of this argument is that the nation can only wait till the economy has run into the ditch, and unemployment has become severe, before any kind of correction can be applied.

Another opportunity presented itself to the President at his press conference to tackle the wage-price question when he was asked if he would invite the leaders of the steel unions and companies to the White House so as to avert another wage increase which could result in a further increase in steel prices next July. But Mr. Eisenhower commented that the wage increase is covered by a contract that operates automatically for this year and that he couldn't see how much could be done unless "an incident of an emergency character" should arise.

There is little doubt that, where officials talk hopefully about self-restraint in wage and price matters as a duty of labor and management, neither side feels able to resist the pressures that keep the wage-price spiral going upward.

How It Works

Inside the labor unions the political aspirations of rival leaders make it seem necessary to demand higher wages every year. Likewise, companies are faced with higher costs that cannot possibly be absorbed without going into the red or without seeing profits go down to the point where investors will hesitate to invest and supply the money for expansion.

Nobody has come forth yet with any effective device to stabilize wages and prices even during a recession period. Nor has it dawned on enough people yet that, when the nation is paying out $400,000,000 or more a year for armament and the world is in a disturbed condition in which anything might happen any day to require military action, a strong economy is essential as any new weapons of war and a strong economy in an emergency era can never be achieved without some governmental controls such as were imposed in World War II and during the Korean War. BABSON on BUSINESS

By Roger W. Babson

Babson Park, Mass., May 29—There is no one who wants to see a prosperous America more than I do. But if the only way to more business is to convert Sunday into just another work day, then America is in worse shape than I had thought!

People in puritanical New England where only 1 per cent of the supermarkets are open on Sundays are probably unaware that 78 per cent of these markets are open Sundays in the Mountain and Pacific States. In California, stores of all kinds never close. The real reason for this is competition for the everlasting sales dollar.

There are a number of causes for the inroads the merchant is making on the Sabbath: (1) The long-term pattern of business from 9 to 5 gave way to wartime needs when stores in certain manufacturing areas remained open evenings to cater to round-the-clock defense workers. (2) The mass movement to Suburbia following the war radically changed consumers' buying habits; it was much more convenient to stay at home and shop in Suburbia, especially if the stores there remained open nights: (3) When competition for consumer dollars stiffened, it was but a short step into Sunday from Saturday afternoon—particularly in those parts of our country where Sunday Blue Laws either are weak or receive only token enforcement.

Is Sunday Selling Good for Merchants?

That depends on who and where you are! The now famous case of Hess Brothers, Allentown, Pennsylvania's largest department store, points up one answer to this question. Last October, a large discount house, "Two Guys From Harrison, Inc.," began drawing away the Hess sales volume. Hess Brothers finally threatened to keep its doors open on Sunday, too. Hess threat caused a Pennsylvania district attorney not only to fine the owners of "Two Guys From Harrison, Inc.," but also to fine each of the 100 or so employees of the discount house for violation of a 160-year-old Pennsylvania Sunday statute. This is one side of a typical problem confronting many communities today.

Another look, however, reveals that more and more merchants remaining open on Sundays count on their Sunday sales to make the difference between the week's profit and loss. These merchants argue that times change, and with changing times must change merchandising techniques. In short, Sunday selling, they say, has become a matter of economic survival.

The Case Against Sunday Selling
The very fact that so many favor Sunday selling is a reasonably good index of how materialistic our culture has become. The paths of history are strewn with the wreckage of cultures that neglected their spiritual development. The place for our families on Sunday is in God's House, not in a Discount House. Surely in a country where the work week becomes ever greater, we ought to be able to find a little time during the week for reflection and spiritual regeneration.

Parents, law enforcement officials, educators—all who work with young people—are concerned with the many symptoms of maladjustment: juvenile delinquency, divorce, cheating, etc. But, these are indications of a deeper problem: lack of adequate standards and values.

Better Homes Needed

We parents need to bring into much sharper focus the standards of right and wrong, and we need a philosophy of life much less ego-centered and a lot more other-centered. Dare I say that most of our youth are what our homes have made them? This is where the Church comes in. Where, if not in the Church and in the church-oriented home, is the average youth going to develop sound moral and spiritual life?

As a businessman, I believe the business community owes more to its constituents than just making it easy for people to buy what they want when they want it. The balance sheet must be scrutinized for spiritual losses that may do far greater harm, in the long run, than the immediate material gains. We may need a "business depression" to bring us to our senses—and perhaps something more serious.

JUST A CARLOAD OF INDUSTRIALISTS

The press reports that businessmen are on their feet urging tax reforms and tax reductions? Why not? Haven't the taxpayers had a stomach full?

If the taxpayers can't earn and save enough, because of the progressive tax system, where will the money come from to create more machines and buildings for more jobs for the workers and their sons growing up?

There is no lingering doubt that the need for income tax rate reduction has reached the blow-up stage as shown at the House Ways and Means Committee's public hearing, which was attended by a carload of industrialists, not to play marbles, but to get a tax cut. The men were representatives of all types of the nation's economic activities and offered strong evidence that the current business recession resulted largely from inexcusable and oppressive personal and corporate tax rates, which are weakening the chance for survival of our Constitutional Free Enterprise System.

I trust these gentlemen will shout their heads off and start a prairie fire across the nation. President Roosevelt once said in substance, "Congress should enact tax legislation so that no person or corporation shall have left, after taxes, more than 25,000 $'s." We get closer to this every day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wacker, ask your boss: "How secure is my job?" He has only one answer: "As long as we can make enough profit to keep expanding."

Hawthorne Caballeros Will Appear at June 14 Pageant

The Hawthorne (N. J.) Caballeros, who captured the hearts of drum corps devotees here four years ago will present a special exhibition at the fourth annual Pageant of Champions scheduled Saturday, June 14 at Dietz Stadium at 8 p. m.

Nine drum and bugle corps—a total of more than 500 marching musicians—are scheduled to appear at the Pageant. Five championship American Legion drum and bugle corps will compete for cash awards and four other corps will present exhibitions.

Donald Decker, publicity chairman of the Port Ewen Drum and Bugle Corps, sponsor of the event, also announced today that The Gay Blades, representing the George Washington Carver American Legion Post of Newark, N. J., have replaced the Bangor (Pa.) Yellow Jackets.

"The addition of the Caballeros and the Gay Blades gives us the most outstanding lineup we have ever had in the four-year history of our Pageant," Decker said.

The Caballeros have enjoyed national and state championship records in past years and staged an enthusiastically-received performance at the Pageant here in 1954.

Decker said the addition of the Gay Blades will produce more musical variety to the show since the New Jersey unit members are jazz exponents.

"They are the only all-Negro marching and maneuvering corps in the eastern United States," Decker said, "and gives us the greatest array of competing corps in the eastern section of the country."

Other competing corps include the Yankee Rebels, Baltimore, Md., state champions since 1946; Connecticut Yankees, Stratford, Conn., state champions and 1957 winner of the pageant; Colonials, Morristown, N. J., and Empire State Grenadiers, Cohoes.

Special exhibitions, in addition to that of the Caballeros, will include the Connecticut Hurriances, of Shelton, Conn., the Colonial Cavaliers and their junior unit, the Colonial Cadets.

Decker said reserved seats "are almost sold out, but there are plenty of general admission tickets still available."

Felled by Poisoning

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. John A. Roosevelt, 41, wife of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's youngest son, was hospitalized Wednesday night with an attack of food poisoning.

At St. Luke's Hospital today she was reported in fairly good condition. Roosevelt said his wife is not seriously ill and that they plan to spend the holiday weekend at Hyde Park.

The Roosevelts had fish for dinner Wednesday evening. A few hours later Mrs. Roosevelt complained of illness and was treated by a physician before being taken by private ambulance to the hospital.

Mrs. Roosevelt is the former Anne Lindsay Clark of Boston and Nahant, Mass.

Signs 'X' for Pension

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Col. Walter Williams, 115, scrawled a wobbly "X" Wednesday to an application for a Confederate pension from the federal government. Williams, oldest of the two living veterans of the Civil War, lives here with a daughter, Mrs. Willie Bowles.

President Eisenhower signed a bill Friday authorizing a federal pension to surviving Confederate veterans. The monthly pension is $101.59 or $135.45 if a full-time attendant is needed.

Recession Gets Blame Here, Too

WASHINGTON (AP)—The slackening off of marriage and births—blamed on the recession—continued through March, the Public Health Service reported today.

The 90,000 weddings estimated for the month were 9.1 per cent below the 99,000 reported for March last year.

March births were estimated at 345,000, down 1.1 per cent from the 349,000 in March 1957.

43 Bluecoats End Sitdown Strike of 11

NEW YORK (AP)—It took 43 policemen to end a sitdown strike by 11 women in Manhattan's garment district Wednesday. The women had to be lifted bodily into police vans. None were hurt.

The women had been peacefully picketing since last March, when a strike hit the garment industry. The walkout was settled, but garment plants in Pennsylvania still are embroiled in a dispute with the International Ladies Garment Workers Union over piecework wages.

The women decided Wednesday to take up positions at the freight entrance of Budget Dresses, on West 35th Street near Seventh Avenue. Their action effectively blocked deliveries. The sitdowners complained that Budget Dresses had a non-union shop in Sweet Valley, Pa., which paid low wages.

A large crowd and noisy gathered about the women. The women refused orders by three mounted patrolmen to disperse. Forty foot patrolmen arrived on the scene. The women not only defied them, they stretched out prone on the sidewalk.

The officers lifted them bodily into two vans and took them to Upper Manhattan Court, along with three unruly men in the crowd.

The women, mostly Pennsylvanians, were held in $500 bail on disorderly conduct charges. Hearings were set for June 11.

Death of Stritch May Bring Move To Bolster Ranks

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The death of Samuel Cardinal Stritch has renewed speculation that Pope Pius XII soon may call a consistory to bolster the diminished ranks of the College of Cardinals.

There has been no official word on a consistory, the gathering of cardinals which second the Pope's nominations to their ranks, and there will be no official word until the date for the meeting is announced, together with the names of the prelates who will be elevated to the princedom of the Roman Catholic Church.

Pius XII has held only two consistories during his 19 years on the papal throne. In 1946 he named 32 cardinals, the largest number ever elevated at once. Seven years later he named 24 more, including the first cardinals from India, Ecuador, Colombia and Yugoslavia.

The Pope said then he was considering an increase in the number of cardinals, set at 70 by Pope Sixtus V 400 years ago, when the population of the world was estimated at only 360 million people. Today Roman Catholics alone number nearly 500 million—a fifth of the world's expanding population.

The death of Cardinal Stritch, 70-year-old archbishop of Chicago, cut the number of cardinals to 53.

Widow Gets Bulk

SANTA BARBARA (AP)—Actor Ronald Colman left most of his estate to his widow Benita Hume and their daughter Juliet, 17.

Value of the estate was not disclosed when the will was filed for probate.

Jewish Council Joins National Advisory Assn.

The Kingston Jewish Community Council has become affiliated with the National Community Relations Advisory Council which now has 42 local agencies on its rolls.

President David L. Ullman, chairman of the national body, announced this from New York, stressing that it is dedicated to the advancement of the common cause of better Jewish community relations.

Attorney Abraham Streifer is president of the Kingston JCC and Sol J. Silverman, executive director.

Welcomed to the national with Kingston were the Jewish Community Council of Peoria, Ill., and the Jewish Federation of Fort Worth, Texas.

In welcoming the three new community members, Chairman Ullman observed that they had become participants in a co-operative process, in which most of the major organized Jewish communities of the United States were a part.

Responding to Ullman's letter, President Streifer expressed "great satisfaction."

"By the exchange of ideas and drawing upon the experience of others," Streifer wrote, "we can avoid many pitfalls and adopt techniques and policies to better our community relations."

The NCRAC is the joint policy-forming, planning and coordinating body of the American Jewish Congress, Jewish Labor Committee, Jewish War Veterans, Union of American Hebrew Congregations, Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America and United Synagogue of America, in addition to the 42 local constituents.

known as the Carmelite Order. Carmelites cultivate a special devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and seek to model their lives on that of Saint Elias the Prophet, who dwelt on Mount Carmel, Palestine, in solitude and prayer 700 years before Christ.

Asked to Teach

The Carmelites were originally an order of hermits, but in the thirteenth century they were asked to undertake the active apostolate of preaching and teaching. Today the Carmelite Order has 19 provinces spread throughout the world.

The American Carmelites conduct high schools, parishes and retreat houses in several dioceses of the United States. Though participating in the active apostolate, the Carmelites stress an intensive life of prayer.

The two-track main line was blocked. Traffic was re-routed through Albany.

Commends Nurses

Dr. Hargrave commended the public health nurses of the department who mobilize supplies and assisted physicians in giving the injections. He also expressed the department's gratitude for the help of school nurses and local volunteers in keeping records.

"School clinics in 1954, 1955 and 1956, the efforts of private physicians, and the recently concluded free clinics, have all resulted in some measure of immunity for a high proportion of our population under 20 years of age," Dr. Hargrave said. "The big task ahead lies in persuading young adults between 20 and 40 to receive the necessary three injections. Most have received none, yet it is in this age group that polio is most crippling and most often fatal," he added.

Wagner Hints Interest

At the Liberal dinner, Mayor Robert F. Wagner hinted he might be interested in the nomination for U. S. senator on the Democratic ticket.

Referring to recent newspaper criticism of his administration Wagner remarked:

"Let us imagine just for a moment—hypothetically and I assure you, without any intended implications—that I was to become a candidate for another office this year."

"Can't you see the editorials frantically proclaiming, as they did in 1956, that Bob Wagner was too important to the City of New York to permit him to leave the office of mayor for any other post?"

In his speech Harriman charged policies of the Republican national administration led to the recent anti-administration riots in South America and the Middle East.

"Inaction and reaction... have undermined American leadership of the free world," he said.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market widened its gains early this afternoon with industrials to the fore. Trading was active. Leading issues were up from fractions to a point or so.

Motors, oils, coppers, rubbers, aircrafts, some chemicals and steels were among the gainers.

Better figures on sales of new cars, a decline in new claims for unemployment and an upturn in shipments of replacement tires were among encouraging items. A big Belgian producer hiked the price of copper.

Investment buying was steady. Brokers said the market tone was good in view of a long three-day weekend and uncertainties about buying.

Republic Aviation led the aircraft group with a rise of about 2 points. Fairchild Engine advanced a major fraction.

Anacosta and International Nickel gained about a point each. Kennecott was ahead by a good fraction.

Youngstown Sheet was ahead about a point. A small fraction was added to U. S. Steel.

Murray Corp., which dropped Wednesday on its dividend omission, was off 1/4 at 25 1/2 but gained later.

Babbitt was up slightly. Polaris dropped about 2.

Goodyear rose about a point. Also ahead were Goodrich, Texas Co., Illinois Central, Johns-Manville and Baltimore & Ohio.

U. S. government bonds continued to rise.

Balky Taxpayers Pay

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—New York's tax agents collected about $16,500,000 from balky taxpayers and cheats in the last fiscal year. The collections bureau of the State Tax Department reported Wednesday that its men had pried $15,432,000 from persons who had resisted efforts of local tax offices to collect overdue returns.

In addition, agents of the special investigations bureau collected a million dollars in the fiscal year ended March 31 through tracking down the cheats. It is in the process of securing $1,600,000 more, the department said.

The collections bureau was set up in 1952. Commissioner George M. Bragalin said the bureau had a backlog of 400,000 cases of delinquents but not enough men for a more intensive collection program.

He blamed the Republican-controlled Legislature for not providing funds for more manpower. The bureau collected $13,455,336 in fiscal 1957.

No Successor

"We met informally to discuss our talks with the Municipal Civil Service Commission on Tuesday evening involving the eligibility list," the mayor said.

26 Names Available

He announced yesterday the police board will call for additional candidates in "groups of four" from an eligibility list of 26 names "until the list is expended or the table of organization" is filled.

Mayor Radel noted that at a previous meeting the police commissioners voted unanimously to raise "the table of organization" to 60 uniformed men, including a chief, and excluding a "civilian clerk."

Plans also call for modernization of the present headquarters.

Coty Warns

president in 1954, would carry weight.

Coty announced he was readying the extraordinary message for Parliament after his efforts to solve France's gravest postwar crisis by naming De Gaulle premier reached a perilous stalemate.

De Gaulle held a secret midnight meeting with the titular leaders of Parliament in an effort to determine whether a majority of the deputies would accept him as a strongman premier.

Informed sources said the two leaders reported back to Coty pessimistically that no decision was possible for the moment. The general drove back to his rural home for another spell of waiting.

Socialists Main Barrier

The main barrier to republican France's willing the government to De Gaulle was the Socialist party. Many Socialist leaders in Parliament led peaceful street demonstrations against De Gaulle Wednesday by 50,000 or more Parisians.

The Communists also were ready to oppose De Gaulle with more strike calls and possibly street fighting if their bloc of one quarter of the Assembly could not find enough voting partners to deny him the premiership.

But the longer France goes without an effective government, the longer looms the shadow of De Gaulle's army adherents in Algeria. Most Parisians continued their normal life but there was some fear of a coup in Paris like the military-civilian uprising in Algiers May 13 which opened the crisis.

Support Necessary

Despite heavy pressure from Gaullists on the right and apparently also from President Coty, the Socialist sixth of the Assembly still refused to vote for De Gaulle as premier. Their support plus the support of some smaller center parties which they influence was necessary for De Gaulle to assume power legally—the only way he says he wants it.

De Gaulle said 10 days ago he would be willing to take exceptional power by an exceptional process, meaning he wanted to rule over the heads of the political parties he accuses of bringing France to its present predicament.

Repeat Business Is Common Characteristic
Of Sound Growth Stocks

Q.—D. R., Kentucky, writes, "I am in a position to start building a list of good growth stocks. Is there any common characteristic about these stocks that would help me in selecting them? I would very much appreciate any specific buying suggestions along these lines that you care to make."

A.—In determining the future growth outlook for any stock, I am inclined first to look closely at the nature of the company's business. The common characteristic that I look for in most instances is repeat business. The latter can consist of either goods or services. Many times these are sold in connection with basic equipment produced by the company. I can give you two good examples. Eastman Kodak makes cameras which last a long time. But Eastman sells a great deal of film which can be used only once and must be replaced.

Eastman's growth comes in large measure from its repeat business in film. Let me give you another example which involves service. International Business Machines makes accounting and data processing machines. A great amount of these are leased. The bulk of IBM's revenue is derived from rental payments and services which are of a repeat nature and make IBM grow. Then there is another category in which repeat business falls, personal use items. For example, Kimberly-Clark makes Kleenex, which unlike cotton soft goods, is used once and thrown away. Kimberly-Clark is growing on a repeat item which has very wide acceptance.

Repeat Business Brings Wider Profit Margins

As a general rule, well established repeat business brings wider profit margins. This is an important factor in growth. To become well established in this way a company must enjoy (1) an unassailable patent position or (2) a top industry position in a field where new competition is prohibitively costly. Repeat business backed by either or both of the foregoing should result in consistently high profit margins.

Such names as Kleenex, Kodak and Gillette are so well established in the minds of consumers that they are practically synonymous with the type of product they sell.

REPEAT-BUSINESS GROWTH STOCKS ENUMERATED

I have mentioned above Eastman Kodak, International Business Machines, Kimberly-Clark and Gillette. I like all these issues as growth purchases with the exception of Gillette. The latter's main product appears to have approached the saturation point. Its new cosmetic line is meeting fierce competition and total none.

Survey of Bridge Traffic Is Over

A traffic survey of the four existing facilities of the New York State Bridge Authority to determine a projected traffic figure for the proposed Newburgh-Beacon Bridge has been completed, it was announced today by John S. Stillman, chairman of the Authority.

classified as an "origin and destination" check, will not be completed until fall, it was reported. The survey was made to aid the Authority in planning the Newburgh-Beacon span "as well as helping in the future operations of the existing facilities," Stillman said.

Traffic on the four spans was checked on origin, destination and number of times a day any of the four facilities was used by motorists.

Stillman praised "the vast majority of motorists" who cooperated in the survey. "Without this cooperation, the survey could not have been as successful and would not have been conducted with as little disruption to the orderly flow of traffic," he said.

He also commended the Authority personnel who worked as long as 15 hours per day and local officials in the area of the four facilities who aided in controlling the traffic flow.

"The objective of the survey was better bridges for the Hudson Valley and this survey was a step in that direction," Stillman said.

Venting an Emotion

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., (AP)—"Do I have to go to court on this?" a man asked Police Capt. Kelo Rice as he handed him a printed card which read:

"Thanks for taking two parking spaces. I had to park in the next block, you selfish, idiotic moron." In smaller type were the words, "You have violated section 368 D. A. M. I. T." Rice explained it was not an official summons—but added that the man shouldn't have taken two parking spaces.

Korean Vets Are Urged to Act Now On College Plans

Korean conflict veterans were reminded today by Peter B. Riley, Counselor, New York State Division of Veterans Affairs, and Howard C. Shurter, director, Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, that they would do well to take action immediately if they intend to enroll in college this coming fall under the Korean GI bill.

They pointed out that colleges, particularly the larger ones, are crowded, and the veteran who tries to enroll too late might be disappointed and lose out in the rush at enrollment time, whereas early action might insure admission to the college of his choice.

Those Eligible

Any person who served in the active military, naval, or air service on or after June 27, 1950 and prior to February 1, 1955, and who shall have served for 90 days or more, and who was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable, or less than 90 days if discharged for actual service incurred disability, is eligible for the education benefits of Public Law 550. The training benefits are limited to 1½ days of education or training, not to exceed 36 months, for each day of service. The educational allowance for a veteran without dependents, pursuing a full-time program in an educational institution is $110 per month; for a veteran with one dependent, $135 per month; and for a veteran with more than one dependent, $160 per month. Proportionate rates are fixed for less than full-time courses as well as on-the-job and on-the-farm training.

The veterans officials further said that the deadline date for the veteran to keep in mind is that training under the act must be initiated not later than three years after the date of discharge, and must be completed within eight years after the date of discharge, or January 31, 1965, whichever is earlier.

Data Available

Veterans who have any question about their eligibility or desire further information and assistance in applying for this benefit should get in touch with the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs office at the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency at 32 Main Street, or any of the branch offices in Ellenville, Highland, Kerhonkson and Saugerties.

The World Today

DeGaulle Shows Political Immaturity by Arrogance

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP)—This is the real mystery of Charles de Gaulle: Is he shrewd or confused? One thing is sure: he's one of the real odd-balls of the 20th century.

He expresses faith in himself and the future of France with him as leader. But he has shown personal and political immaturity and difficulty adjusting to the realities of the world he lives in.

His arrogance and his troubles getting along with people associated with him are examples of his personal immaturity. He has demonstrated his political immaturity in his attitude towards politicians and politicians.

Despises Politicians

Example: He brushed aside at his May 19 news conference—without denying it—any idea he wants to be a dictator. Yet he despises politicians and political horse-trading.

He quit as head of the French provisional government in 1946 because of political dickering in the Legislature. He speaks of the "poisons" of the parliamentary system.

Yet, without the parliamentary and the politicians' horse-trading there could be no republic but only a dictatorship. The answer lies in between: a parliamentary system with more stability than France has produced so far.

This writer Wednesday polled specialists on France, asking if they had any idea of what De Gaulle really represents and what he might do if he came to power. All agreed he's a French nationalist, a French-firster.

Only Double Talk

Beyond that there was only puzzlement except for this one opinion: That he was very shrewd at his May 19 news conference. Why shrewd? This was the answer: Because he really didn't say anything.

This writer disagrees that there is anything necessarily shrewd about that. True enough, De Gaulle gave out with nothing but double-talk. But it may have been because he couldn't think straight and had no policy or programs for France.

There is certainly concern in the Western world that De Gaulle, once he led the government, might turn into a manipulated stooge for men far shrewder than he, particularly military men.

He did play a great role as rallying point in World War II for French men crushed by the Nazis. But some of his performances after the war threw doubts on his awareness of what the world is like.

Dependence Irritating

France owed its liberation to the United States and Britain. But

In 1948 diplomats here and abroad feared that if De Gaulle returned to power then he would jeopardize the North Atlantic Treaty Organization—an alliance of Western powers for mutual defense against the Soviet Union—then in the process of creation. He was saying: "It is inconceivable that the defense of France should be assured by anyone other than the French themselves." This was really talking through his hat, since he had seen what happened when France tried to stand up to the Nazis in 1940.

Now again there is concern over what De Gaulle would do—perhaps try to take France out of NATO—if he came to power, for as late as 1954 he was calling for the reorganization of NATO so France could have full power of action.

MAKER'S MARK: Fresh from the fire is the true meaning of "brand new." "Brand" itself comes from the Anglo-Saxon word meaning fire. New metal products used to come from the forge bearing the maker's mark. After some use, the brand marks would begin to wear off, so the objects would no longer be "brand new."

Mrs. Merrihew Is Reported Better

Improvement in the condition of Mrs. Emma Merrihew, 61, of West Shokan, who was taken to Benedictine Hospital Wednesday morning after she was knocked down by an automobile, is indicated in a report from hospital authorities today.

The hospital reported this morning that her condition was "fair" and that she had spent a "comfortable night." When she was admitted shortly before noon yesterday she was described as serious.

Trooper H. S. Rhodes of the Phoenicia state police said Mrs. Merrihew parked her car on Route 28, hamlet of Ashokan, and started across the street to Elephant's grocery store. She stepped into the path of a car operated by Gerard O'Gorman, 50, of Downsville, proceeding west toward Phoenicia.

She reportedly suffered possible fractures of the skull and both knees, multiple contusions and lacerations.

Appointment of Sharon de Lisio and Libby Lee as life guards and leasing of the playground canteen to a group of three girls has been announced by Kermit Schwarz, chairman of the township Recreation Committee.

Action on other matters was taken after the committee had made a field inspection trip to Andy Lee Memorial Field where the 1958 summer program starts on July 1.

The refreshment canteen was leased to a group including Susie Bromberg, D. Jay Boggs and another unidentified girl for a $50.00 fee. Janet Greene, a member of the committee, said the girls were interested in the project and the committee accepted her recommendation.

Inspection of the playground facilities indicated that considerable work will have to be done on the swimming pool. It was decided to use young boys to scrape and clean it, with Kermit Schwarz doing the paint job.

Roster Completed

The naming of the two life guards, both of whom are accomplished swimmers, completes the playground roster for 1958. John Majors will again serve as director, with Bob Foster as his assistant. Mrs. Margaret Welterau will be in charge of arts and crafts and will be assisted by Ingie Guston.

The Brownies are looking forward to their Brownie outing, an all-day affair which is to be held at Woodland Valley on June 14. Several of the girls in the Brownie troops, with the aid of their leaders, will form a planning board and make plans for a very successful and interesting day.

Pre-School Parents Plan Final Meeting

The final meeting this year for the Onteora Pre-School Parents Club was held May 24 with both parents and children attending. There were 18 adults present, with approximately 30 children, who viewed and familiarized themselves with the kindergarten rooms, playground and facilities.

A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Betty Rose, chairman, presiding. Mrs. Marilyn Munroe was nominated and elected chairman for next year. Parents are reminded of the June 5 meeting for those entering children in kindergarten next year. The meeting is scheduled at 8 p. m., at the Onteora School.

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—The New York State political scene this week is a never-never land of pretense, posturing and hokum.

The ruler is the tyrant Political Ambition.

The worst crimes are frankness and logic.

The subjects are grown men, otherwise generally intelligent and responsible, who act according to the laws that have been set by political tradition.

This is how things shape up this week:

Things They Desire

Gov. Harriman wants to be re-elected. So does Lt. Gov. George DeLuca. They teamed last time. Harriman won't say whether he wants DeLuca this time. But he doesn't want anybody to think that means he might not want DeLuca. Because he might.

Leonard Hall wants the Republican nomination for governor. He launched an intensive Upstate swing for meetings with county chairmen and leaders. But he says he's just looking things over in a general sort of way. When the talk gets around to specific candidates, says Len, he always tells the chairmen: "No names, please."

While Hall so informs newsmen, a county chairman who apparently was not briefed on the rules of the game, says very bluntly that Hall appealed for support for the nomination for governor.

Not Candidate 'Now'

Some influential Republicans want Nelson Rockefeller to have the nomination. As the support for him builds up, he says he's not a candidate "at this time."

Will he be a candidate at some other time? He has said he is not working for the nomination. What would he do if it were offered to him? He hasn't said.

On the other hand, Commerce Commissioner Edward Dickinson cheerfully admits he is interested in the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator.

That would be significant if he had any real chance of getting it. Harriman describes himself as an upstater and says there should be at least one more on the Democratic ticket.

That strategem is based on the fact that Democratic strength is heaviest in the New York City area and the party should work extra hard in the Upstate vineyards.

Disagree on Ave

There are those who might not agree that Averell Harriman, with a home in Orange County, a town house in Manhattan, a summer estate on Long Island's North Shore and a plush Florida retreat qualifies under the generally accepted term of an Upstate New Yorker.

Some Republican leaders say that their candidate for governor should come from downstate. That assumes that the Upstate area is safely GOP and the party's big job is to court metropolitan New Yorker.

Whether a Brooklynite would feel any bond with Nelson Rockefeller because both of them come from the same general area is, at best, a moot question.

But, then again, what isn't these days in politics?

Young Democrats Political Parley Set June 13-14

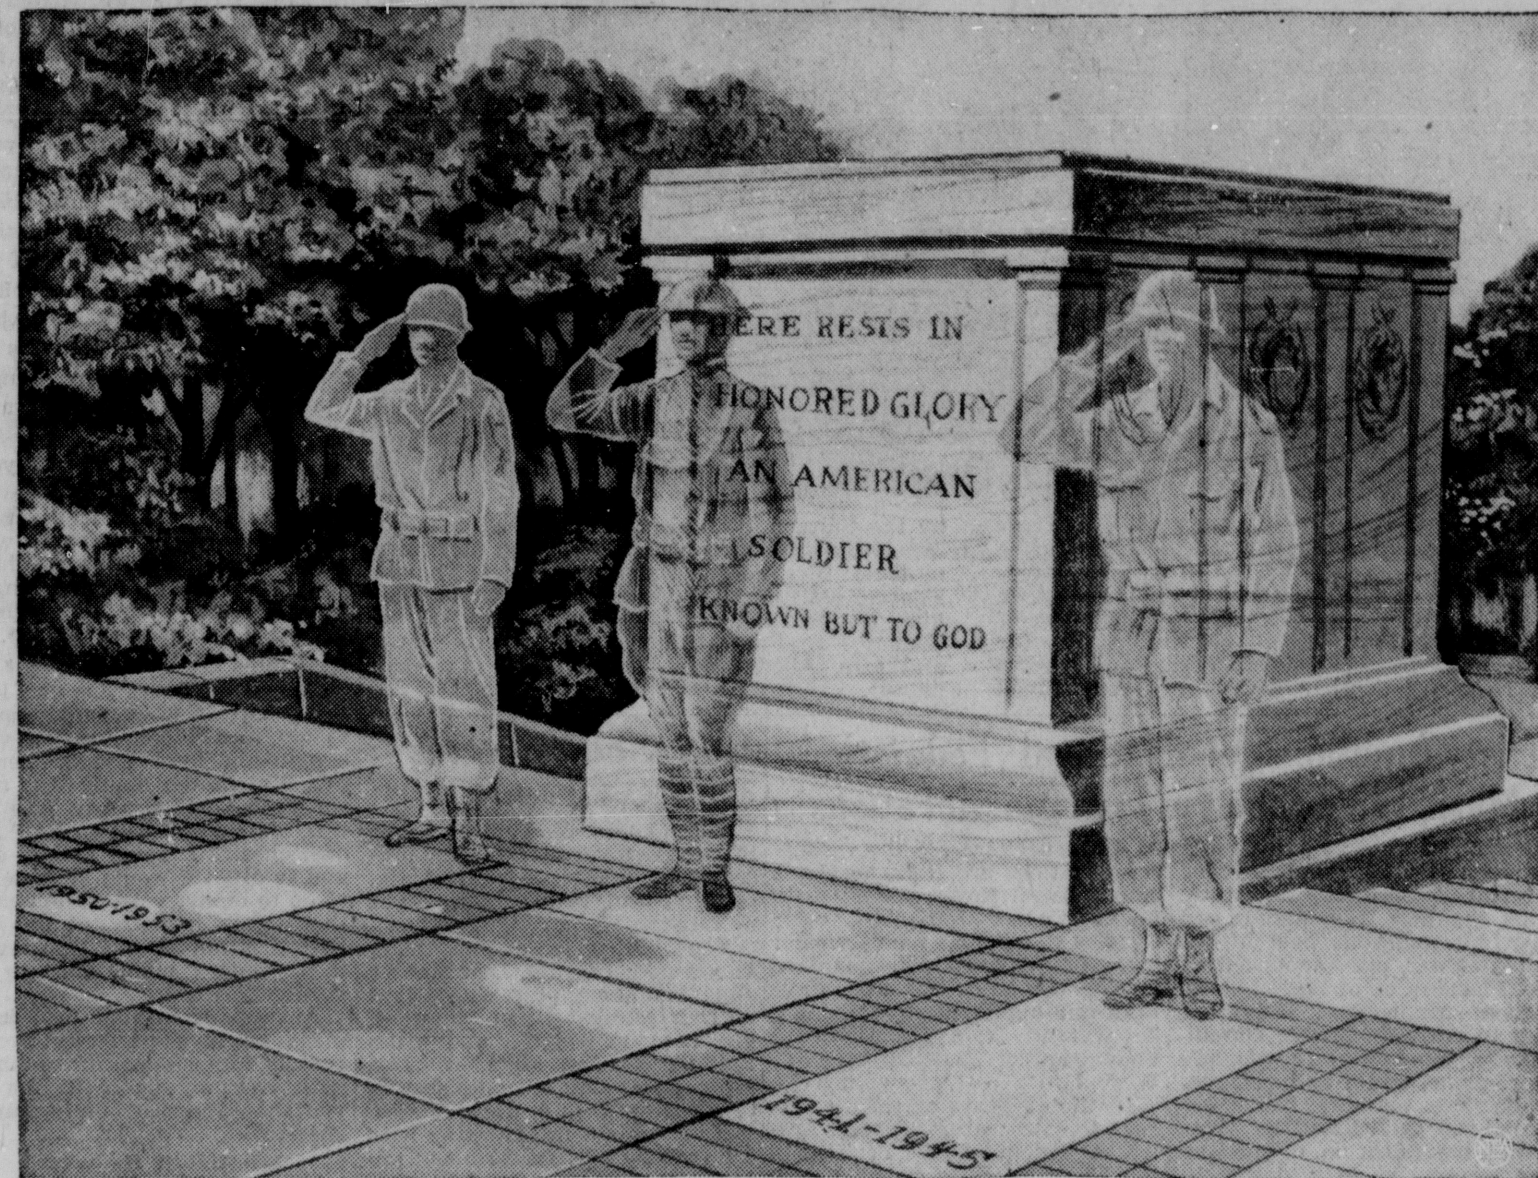

A large delegation of Ulster County Young Democrats will attend a political institute sponsored by the New York State Young Democrats at Syracuse University, June 13-14. It was announced today by Lewis C. Kirschner, co-chairman of the county group.

The two-day session will consist of seminars, panel discussions and forums to be led by top level leaders of Governor Averell Harriman's administration. Featured guest speakers include Gov. Harriman, Lt. Gov. George B. DeLuca, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, State Democratic Chairman Michael H. Prendergast, and Democratic National Committeeman Carmine G. De Sapio.

Kirschner stressed that any person in the area interested in government and politics is invited to attend.

Additional details on the political institute may be obtained from Chairman Frank Koenig, 116 Andrew Street; co-chairman Kirschner, 40 Elmendorf Street; Mrs. Donald Quick, 42 Sterling Street, or Frank Adams, 72 Crane Street.

Honor New 'Unknown Soldiers' —

Memorial Day this year has special significance for all the servicemen who fought in our last two conflicts—World War II and the Korean War. On that day Arlington National Cemetery receives the bodies of two Unknown Soldiers, representing all the dead of those wars. In special crypts, at either side of the present

Kingston Marks Historic Dates On Memorial Day

Kingston, this year, will commemorate two significant dates in its long history. One is the 50th anniversary of the Memorial Day services for New York State's first governor, George Clinton, in Old Dutch Churchyard. The other is the founding of Kingston, then Wiltwyck, May 31, 1658, by Peter Stuyvesant.

These dates are brought to the attention of the residents of Ulster County by Andrew S. Hickey, who, in a letter to The Freeman reports:

Fifty years ago May 30, 1908, as the climax of the 250th anniversary celebration of the founding of Kingston, the body of George Clinton, first governor of the state and first New Yorker to serve as vice president of the United States, was placed in a grave in Old Dutch Churchyard. At memorial services attended by many distinguished citizens, Governor Charles Evans Hughes delivered the oration.

Destroyer Escort

The body arrived under escort of five destroyers, two submarines and three gunboats. The funeral ship was the Gunboat Wasp. The squadron reached Rondout, off Kingston Point on the afternoon of May 29 having sailed up the Hudson from New York.

On the afternoon of May 29, 1658, Peter Stuyvesant came to the Esopus. In "Journal of Director Stuyvesant" he states that he had serious talks with the settlers along the Esopus and the Indians. He also attended Ascension Thursday church service on that day.

May 31, 1658, the settlers signed an agreement with Stuyvesant. He then marked out the site of a proposed village.

Marked Off Land

According to his "Journal," Stuyvesant marked off 210 Dutch rods or 2625 feet "circumference," i.e., the land between Clinton Avenue, North Front Street, Dover (now Fair) Street and John Street.

CANDIDATE? — Philip H. Willkie, son of the late Wendell L. Willkie, Republican presidential candidate in 1940, has announced he may run for the U.S. Senate. A former state legislator from Rushville, Ind., Willkie said he would prefer to run against GOP Sen. Homer E. Capehart when the latter's term expires in 1962, but "under certain circumstances," might enter this year's senatorial race for the seat vacated by Republican William E. Jenner.

Onteora Central School Band Receives High
Rating in Competition; Group Is Lauded

Onteora Central School officials made public today that the 50-piece Onteora Central School Band received an A-6 rating at the New York State Music Competition at Ossining, Friday, May 23. An A-6 rating is the class of music intended for organizations of symphonic caliber and is a grade that usually is expected from the larger schools. The local school band was formed in 1952 with a membership of approximately 30 students. A spokesman for the board of education said, "We are very proud of the achievement of the band due to the fact that last year in the competition, the band was given a Grade A-3 rating and it is the only known instance in state competition that a high school band moved from Grade 3 music to Grade 6 music in a short period of one year."

Normally, high school bands progress from Grade 3 music to Grade 4 and 5. "With the rating received last Friday, the Onteora Band can now be classed with the best high school bands throughout the whole state," Dr. Joseph Saetvoit, supervisor of music education, New York State Department of Education, said. He lauded Harry Simon for his work with the group.

The adjudicators for the competition were Wayne H. Camp of Bay Shore High School, Bay Shore, Long Island, and Fred Morse, head of the music department of East Greenbush Central School, East Greenbush.

The band will appear in a Memorial Day exercise to be held Friday morning, May 30, on the athletic field at the rear of the school at Boiceville. A junior band of 45 pieces will also perform in the Memorial Day exercises.

NOT WRONG, BUT—

Dear Mrs. Post: The other evening a neighbor who lives on the same street as we, visited us and left about eleven o'clock. As she was leaving I asked her if she would like me to walk home with her. She said "No" so I let it go at that. My wife thinks I was wrong to ask. She says that I should just have walked home with her and that it was very ungentlemanly of me to let her go home alone. The street is well lighted and while it is a long block there is no reason to assume any danger would befall her. Did I err in not walking her home?

Answer: As she refused your offer to see her home you were not wrong in letting her go there alone. I do, however, agree with your wife, that it would have been nicer of you to have simply walked home with her without asking if she wished you to.

Dining With a Stranger
Dear Mrs. Post: On a long train trip, if a woman happens to get into a conversation with a man and later he asks her to join him in the dining car, may she accept? If you say "yes" to this, should she ask to have her own check? I travel a good deal and so often it would be pleasant to go to dinner with a companion this way if it were not the fact that it is not always pleasing to feel under obligation to a stranger.

Answer: If in your own judgment he is a perfectly proper person for you to have dinner with, you may dine with him but you should insist on separate checks.

What Will He Wear?

Dear Mrs. Post: The company for which I work is giving a large dance in the near future. While the dance is to be informal, the members of the committee, of which I am one, have been asked to wear evening clothes. Since I will be going with my fiancé, who is not on the committee, I am wondering whether or not he should wear a tuxedo?

Answer: As he is going to the dance with you and you will be in an evening dress, he should wear his tuxedo.

Suffers Cut Finger In Bridge Mishap

Rosemary Jochum, 19, of Holmes, suffered a cut on her finger early this morning in a two-car collision at the west entrance to the Mid-Hudson bridge.

She was treated at Vassar Bros. Hospital, Poughkeepsie, for a cut on her left little finger.

The collision involved cars operated by Vincent James Andretta Jr., 27, of 160 North Manor Avenue and Wilbur J. Wynne Jr., 22, of Saugerties. Troopers Harry Foster and P. M. Luongo of the Highland state police reported that Andretta, proceeding west off the bridge, made a wide turn and was in head-on collision with the Wynne car, traveling south toward the west entrance.

Sgt. E. E. Winkky told The Freeman that the investigation was continuing. Time of the accident was 1:30 a. m.

Veterans Mark 40th Anniversary

A group of Veteran's members of F51st Pioneer Infantry Association who served in World War I held a dinner party Monday night at the Governor Clinton Hotel to commemorate the 40th anniversary of their leaving Kingston to serve in World War I.

There were about 60 members who were inducted into the service at Kingston May 26, 1918, and after serving a brief period of training at Camp Wadsworth, S. C., were shipped overseas arriving in France Aug. 7, 1918. After serving with distinction they were returned to the states and discharged at Camp Upton July 9, 1919.

Of the original contingent of the 60 members leaving Kingston on May 26, 1918, there are now about 30 living members.

First Chamber of Commerce was organized at Marseilles, France, in 1599.

Accord Notes

By JULIUS LUDWIG
Bogardus Tavern

This famous old Kingston tavern and hotel was also known as the Constitution House for the reason that the first constitution of our state was signed there on September 10, 1777.

Unfortunately it was torn down about the middle of the last century.

An old print shows that the tavern had two stories and an attic with a high steep roof, with two chimneys rising from it.

On the evening of November 16, 1782, General George Washington attended a ball at this famous tavern and it is said, danced a quadrille with two Kingston belles. On display at the Senate House Museum is a pair of gloves worn by a woman who attended this ball.

The Hudson Valley is rich in mementos of revolutionary and earlier days, and fortunately many have been preserved. Seeking them out is a rewarding experience.

Just a short drive from Kingston, on Route 209 in Accord, stands the Accord Furniture & TV Mart, its ten large show windows featuring name brand furniture, lamps, rugs, mirrors and pictures. Budget terms arranged. Free delivery.

In progress at this time is a SPRING CLEARANCE SALE—all floor models drastically reduced. Living room suites, sectionals, bedroom suites, dinettes, chairs, tables—everything at low, low prices. Come in and convince yourself.

Hours are weekdays 9 to 5:30, and on Sundays it's "open house" from 2 to 5. Evenings by appointment—call Kerhonskon 2711. Closed Memorial Day.

Kingston Rotary Memorial Reverses Frank Thompson

The annual Kingston Rotary Club memorial service held Wednesday reversed the late Frank W. Thompson, who had been a member of Kingston Rotary since 1918.

Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom of Temple Emanuel, guest speaker for the occasion, brought a message on the significance of Memorial Day.

Marking the memorial service was the presentation of a special president's gavel fashioned from an Irish shillelagh associated with the Civil War. The gavel will be placed in service to be tendered from president to president, as time unfolds, to honor the memory of Frank W. Thompson.

On the hammer head of the gavel is a well formed shamrock. The sounding block is made of two circular plates each faced with maple wood—a reminder that Paul Harris, founder of Rotary, was brought up in Vermont. The plates are united by the use of four lengths of the thorn stick. This symbolizes the four way test and the four o'clocks.

Mrs. Frank W. Thompson, a guest of the club for the memorial service, was presented with the following citation:

"Frank W. Thompson, enthusiastic Rotarian, zealous businessman and ardent American. Given the power of speech the Irish grown thorn stick could relate a heart moving story. It was given to Mr. John Thompson, father of Rotarian Frank Thompson, by a Mr. O'Brien, an American Citizen born in Ireland."

"The fortunes of war placed Mr. John Thompson and Mr. O'Brien in the same prison at Salisbury, North Carolina. The stick helped Veteran O'Brien master his lameness. Time reveals his parting with this bit of Ireland, when he graciously gave it to his companion in misery. Later it became the property of the son, Frank W. Thompson. When he departed this life to unite with the Great Majority, he left the stick to Rotarian Frederic Snyder—a member of the Global Circle of Cane Collectors. He in turn urged that the Rotary Club, improve the opportunity to possess a unique symbolic gavel, by following his design of meanings derived from Rotary precepts."

"Rotarian Clement Angstrom earnestly united with the plan. He arranged for the skillful services of Mr. William McLean, who has demonstrated his artistry in the transformation of a much used war relic into an effective gavel and a novel sounding table."

Effective Month Earlier

An interlocutory decree of divorce granted George Loughran, Kingston, from his wife Anna May Loughran, in November 1957 became final on February 7, 1958, his attorney Joseph A. Viscusi, not in March of 1958 as previously reported.

Normal Play Loses Here

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Here is another hand from the intercollegiate. This one is primarily a problem in defense and East-West are supposed to beat the four-spade contract.

The correct defense is for East to win the opening heart lead with the king and lead back a diamond. South will play the king or queen and it will be up to West to duck.

Eventually East gets in with the king of clubs and leads a second diamond. West now makes two diamond tricks and beats the contract.

There is one point of great interest in the defense and it concerns which diamond East should lead. Normally with four cards of a suit you should lead your fourth best but this is one situation in which the normal play is wrong.

East should lead the eight of diamonds. It is much more important that he tell his partner that he does not hold a diamond honor than that he tell him how many diamonds he holds. Once the eight is led West should have no trouble about playing low. With a three spot lead West might go wrong.

Beats Insurance Odds, Man $75,000 Richer

CHICAGO (AP)—John DeWolf, who at 96 will collect $75,000 life insurance because he tripped up the mortality tables, says he'll soon go to Paris to see some of his lady friends.

"Of course, I'm afraid I'm only joking about the girls," he told a reporter as he celebrated his birthday Wednesday. "They're not around any more."

"But I'll be off to Europe next year," said the sprightly old banker and adventurer. "I want to see it again before I die."

DeWolf beats odds of 100,000 to 3, said the insurance statisticians, by living until he reached his 96th birthday.

Fifty-six years ago he started buying life insurance from Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. He paid some $17,000 premiums on six 20-year-pay life policies.

The insurance firm paid off the face value of the policies totaling $75,000.

DeWolf who put up several buildings in Chicago as an investment banker, is pretty firm about the future. "The doctor tells me I've got 20 more years yet, but he's not selling me any insurance on it."

Farmer Pleads Guilty To Labor Camp Charge

GILBOA, N. Y. (AP)—A farmer has pleaded guilty to operating a migrant labor camp without a health permit. It was the first such case reported this year.

Imer L. Conro, 58, a cauliflower grower in this Schoharie County hamlet, admitted the charge Wednesday. Peace Justice Lawrence Lafferty suspended imposition of any sentence.

Later, the county health department issued Conro a temporary, 30-day permit to operate the camp, where 13 Puerto Rican men have been living and working.

If Conro runs the camp according to regulations, he will qualify for a regular, one-year permit. Otherwise, the camp will be closed.

Keating Has Bill To Continue Civil Rights Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Kenneth B. Keating is sponsoring a bill to continue the Civil Rights Commission until June 1, 1960.

The commission is due to expire Sept. 7, 1959, under present law. His bill, the Rochester, N. Y., Republican said Wednesday, was needed because of what he called "delaying tactics" by commission opponents.

Keating said the Senate had failed to approve the nomination of the commission members and staff director.

This delay, Keating said, had given the commission only about 15 months to fulfill its mission instead of the two years designated by Congress in authorizing it.

Group Backs De Gaulle

MONTREAL (AP)—The local chapter of the Free French Assn.—men who fought under Gen. Charles De Gaulle during World War II—is sending the general a letter expressing their confidence and good wishes.

Under its non-political charter, the message was the best the group could do to support De Gaulle's bid for power in France. De Gaulle is the association's colonel-in-chief.

One of the members suggested at Wednesday night's meeting the group set up a committee of public safety patterned after those established by insurgents in Corsica and Algeria. This was greeted with laughter by the 250 members attending.

"I don't think we have to worry too much about the Canadian government," chuckled Vice President Robert Hollier.

Local Safety Group Urges Holiday Caution

Traffic increased rapidly in the area this afternoon as the long Memorial Day weekend began and the newly-organized Mayor's Committee on Traffic Safety issued a statement urging motorists to exercise extreme caution.

Frank Adams, of 82 Crane Street, chairman of the committee, said the group had examined accident records in the city on Memorial Day for the past seven years and, based on those figures, predicted a total of four accidents and six injuries in the city during the long holiday from 6 p. m. today until Monday at 8 a. m.

He said the committee was hopeful that motorists would be very careful and prove the committee's prediction incorrect.

Jersey Driver Is Caught After 105 MPH T'way Chase

A Thruway chase at speeds up to 105 MPH early Monday night ended with the arrest of a 42-year-old Audubon, N. J., man near Catskill.

Trooper D. W. Culbert of the Kingston barracks of Thruway Police arrested William C. Wolfinger on charges of driving while intoxicated and speeding.

Culbert saw the car speed past the Kingston interchange and gave chase. He finally brought the fugitive to a halt 23 miles later just south of Catskill.

Justice of the Peace George Carle of Leeds fined Wolfinger $50 for driving while intoxicated and $40 for speeding.

Sheriff Urges Careful Driving

Sheriff Claude Bell issued a warning to motorists today to drive carefully during the long Memorial Day weekend.

He pointed out that the highways will be jammed with holiday traffic and vehicular dangers greatly increased.

"Enjoy your vacation but drive cautiously and live to enjoy another one," Bell said.

Jurors Are Excused

Jurors attending the May trial term of Supreme Court were excused from further service by Justice Harry E. Schirick Wednesday. In discharging the jurors Judge Schirick thanked them for their service.

During the term over 60 cases were disposed of either by settlement or through trial. Several cases on the calendar, which were ready but not disposed of, were referred to the day calendar for the October trial term which will be convened by Justice Donald M. Taylor.

Spanish Poet Dies

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Juan Ramon Jimenez, 76, Spanish poet who won the Nobel Prize for literature in 1956, died in a hospital today.

He had lived in virtual isolation since the death of his wife only three days after he was given the Nobel Prize. Cause of his death was not given, but he had been in ill health for a considerable period and friends said the death of his wife, from cancer, crushed his spirit.

Best known for his odes to a donkey, he left Spain in 1938 during the disorders of the Spanish Civil War.

Spotters Vital To U. S. Defense, Hurley Club Told

The eyes and ears of the "spotters" of the Ground Observer Corps are a necessary item in the present defense picture, Sgt. Smith W. Sharp of the Albany Air Defense Filter Center, told the Hurley Democratic Club Tuesday night.

Sgt. Sharp, who is in charge of Ground Observer Corps activities in nine Hudson Valley counties, said the spotters were important despite new electronic inventions and equipment. He encouraged those who are members of the GOC to continue their association and urged others who are not members to affiliate.

Sgt. Sharp showed a film covering one phase of the defense system.

The speaker was introduced by Harry W. Waage, vice-president of the club.

A short business meeting followed. The next meeting of the club will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday, June 24, at the West Hurley Fire Hall.

High School Golfers Set Area Record With 293 Aggregate

Trounce Poughkeepsie To Tie for DUSO Flag

With four players breaking 80, Kingston High's crack golf varsity needed only 293 strokes to trounce Poughkeepsie High's Pioneers, 10½ to 1½, with the DUSO League title on the line Wednesday at The Twaalfskill links.

Mike Bruhn set the pace with a par 70 on nines of 35-35, as Coach Harold Hathaway's swingers set what is believed to be the all-time low aggregate for area high school golf games. The victory also assured the Ma-rons of nothing worse than a tie for the 1958 DUSO title.

Backing up Bruhn, who rebounded with a vengeance from his under par showing in the Section 9 competition, were Fred Barthel with 39-37-76, Dennis Beaver 35-37-72 and a brilliant 39-36-75 by 15-year-old William (Buzzy) Costello.

Bruhn blanked the Pioneer ace, James Peeler, who captured the Section 9 title last week, but only after a hard struggle. The Pioneer captain shot nines of 33-36 for a 72.

Barthel, who qualified for a spot in the state championships at Syracuse, halved his match with Robert Boschlin, who stroked 39-37-76, a standoff to the stroke.

Dennis Beaver shut out Art Ackert of the Pioneers, who fashioned 39-41-80. Costello, of course, routed Andy Reid who had 43-39-82.

Alternates Crack 80

The low score magic was contagious, it seems. Richard Marcus and Richard Barthel, the two Kingston alternates, toured the links with the Pioneer alternates and fashioned 77 and 79, respectively. That gave the Ma-rons an unprecedented "6 for 6" under 80.

Kingston will have a chance to clinch the 1958 title when it meets Port Jervis Monday afternoon at Twaalfskill. The next day they travel to Ostris Country Club to play Middletown.

The scores:

Poughkeepsie High (1½)
J. Peeler	36	36	72 0
R. Boschlin	39	37	76 1½
A. Ackert	39	41	80 0
A. Reid	43	39	82 0
310 1½
Kingston High (10½)
M. Bruhn	35	35	70 3
F. Barthel	39	37	76 1½
D. Beaver	35	37	72 3

Tim Tam Bats For Tom Fool

LEXINGTON, Ky.—(NEA)—It's a good thing Tim Tam won the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, if only to make things more comfortable for Tom Fool.

Despite acknowledged excellence, Tom Fool was in some danger of being snubbed by his neighbors, Tom Fool, you see, happens to be a resident of the Greentree Stud stallion barn which boasts probably the strongest concentration of Triple Crown success anywhere. Tom Fool was unable to participate in the big three-year-old numbers because of illness.

Now he can hold his head up in company which includes Bimelech (Preakness and Belmont), Capot (Preakness and Belmont), and Shut Out (Derby and Belmont).

Jean Laird, a $35,000 bargain purchase two years ago, is favored to whip eight other high-class standardbreds in the $25,000 trotting championship tonight at Roosevelt Raceway.

Wednesday night at the Westbury oval, Famous Hanover showed speed in taking the $6,000 Land O'Plenty junior free-for-all AA handicap.

Famous Hanover beat Grand Note by a length in 2:04 4/5. The 8-year-old trotter, owned by Cyrus Bell of Los Angeles and driven by Russell Valley Key, paid $4,900 as the favorite.

At Buffalo Raceway, Junior Goose and Hallie Dominion ended in a dead heat in a Class B mile pace. The time was 2:07.

Junior Goose, driven by Buddy Gilmour, paid $2.40. Hallie Dominion, with P. J. Tallman in the sulky, paid $3.60. Ginny Widow placed.

Jean Laird, a 9-year-old bay has won $66,000 since being purchased by Jim Scleppio of Massapequa and Adolph Golden of Coshocton, Ohio. A victory tonight would add another $12,500.

Arrayed against the veteran in the 1½-mile test are Trader Horn, the 1957 winner, Darn Safe, Rick Hanover, Something Special, Daily Gallon, Jeffrey Scott, Demon Rum and Lady's First.

BU and Stanford Quit Regatta

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Boston University and Stanford are out of the Intercollegiate Rowing Assn. regatta here June 21.

Boston's withdrawal was announced by the sponsoring Syracuse Regatta Assn. Wednesday night two hours after it said Stanford would not compete because of a poor showing in previous races this season.

In Boston, university officials said a majority of the crew could not afford financially to give up a month of their summer vacation to practice.

Neither Stanford nor BU was given much chance of beating such powerful eight as Penn, Syracuse, Cornell, Princeton, Navy and California. Others still in the field are Wisconsin, Columbia, Dartmouth and MIT.

Crew is not a varsity sport at Stanford. The oarsmen have been raising their own funds in recent years to pay their transportation and ship the shell to the east.

Murdock, Smith At Arlington

Bill Murdock of Kingston and Clyde Smith of Mt. Tremper will be seeking their second trip to the winner's circle Memorial Day evening at Arlington Speedway in Poughkeepsie.

Most of the short track drivers of the Hudson Valley Auto Racing Club have assured promoter Carl F. Watters they will appear. First race is scheduled at 8:30 p. m.

A red hot battle is expected to materialize between Bob Riley of Poughkeepsie and Joe Campanella of Ossining. Riley edged Campanella for the feature win last Friday. Campanella has been runnerup in three of the four races to date.

Trot Earnings Record Near For Fabulous Lord Steward

By TOM BENTON
BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Lord Steward, a cagey, 11-year-old veteran of the harness racing wars whose handlers swear he can count, is poised to become the highest money-winning trotter in history.

The handsome bay gelding goes Friday night in the second leg of the rich Buffalo trotting derby. A money finish could carry him over the lifetime mark of $332,363 set by Pronto Don before he retired three years ago.

Lord Steward has started 279 times in his long and illustrious career from coast to coast. He has won 76 races, finished second 54 times and third 51 times, piling up purses totaling $330,542.

He took third money in the Hambletonian of 1950 and at one time or another has beaten every top trotter of his generation — Scott Frost, Galophone, Pronto Don and all the rest. His best mark was 2:02 as a 3-year-old at Lexington's one-mile track.

"The Old Man was mean as a youngster," says his present

Milwaukee Pitching Hurtin' Yanks Losing Their Patsies

Sore-Arm Buhl Poses Problem For Champions

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

They may have the best pitching in the league, but the failure to find a replacement for sore-armed Bob Buhl has been one reason the Milwaukee Braves haven't been able to take charge of that National League pennant race.

Another reason is the San Francisco Giants.

But the Giants wouldn't have much more than a percentage-point edge if Manager Fred Haney could find another starter who could get the job done.

He tried Gene Conley again Wednesday night, had to hoist the big right-hander in a comeback rally and finally wound up with a 7-4 defeat in 12 innings by the St. Louis Cardinals.

Three in Ninth
That plunked the Braves two games behind San Francisco again as the Giants scored three in the ninth for a 7-6 victory at Philadelphia. The Chicago Cubs rapped Cincinnati 6-4 with Ernie Banks cracking a pair of home runs. Los Angeles trimmed Pittsburgh 7-1.

A two-run homer by rookie Willie Kirkland capped the Giants' ninth-inning spurt after Ray Jaxson's two-run homer had given them a 4-4 tie in the seventh.

Banks, driving in three runs and taking the NL RBI lead with 37, broke up Bob Purkey's perfect game with his first homer, setting off a three-run fifth. Then he counted two with his 11th homer as the Cubs scored three more in the sixth off losing reliever Johnny Klippstein.

The Dodgers countered a dozen hits off seven-game winner Bob Friend, who lost his third, and three relievers.

Martinez Wary Of Akins Hooks

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Vince Martinez is taking care to fashion a defense against the vicious body attack of Virgil Akins. They fight for the welterweight championship here June 6.

"Akins has a good left hook to the belly and if you're not looking for it he can really soften you up," Martinez said. "I'll be looking and maybe give him a few shots of my own."

Lord Steward is in Dick Williams' public stable of about 20 horses. Williams, a former rodeo performer from Richmond, Ind., has been racing him since 1953 when his only other driver, Guy Crippen, died.

Lord Steward was foaled March 7, 1947, at Walnut Himm Farm, Donerail, Ky. His sire was Darnley, his dam Protectorine. His first start was a winning one at Elkhorn, Wis., in 1949, and he's had the money habit ever since.

About that counting claim—Williams and Furness insist Lord Steward can count at least to three, because that's all he'll run in training. He'll jog three miles and not a yard more; at three miles he quits and ambles back toward the barns.

Major Expansion Seen By Frick

BALTIMORE (AP)—Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick looks forward to large-scale expansion of the major leagues "within five years."

Frick, here Wednesday to discuss arrangements for the All Star game, said the two big leagues could expand to 10 or 12 clubs each, or a third major league could be created.

He didn't indicate which he might prefer, and he appeared doubtful that any action would be taken before the 1959 season.

Frick made it plain he favors bringing National League baseball back to New York. He said it was within his power to keep the New York territory open for a National League club and said he would do so.

Bob Chilson of the Jaycee Little League Wrens pitched a one-hitter and struck out five Wednesday, as the Wrens romped over the Owls, 15 to 1.

Don Gaffney spoiled Chilson's bid for a no-hitter with a third-inning single when the Owls picked up their lone tally. Chilson also collected two of the 11 Wren safeties off John Schatzel and N. Pauker.

The victory was the fifth in six starts for the league-leading Wrens. R. Friedman and J. Leahy collected two hits each for the winners, who had six-run rallies in the first and third innings. Jay Sperling belted a triple for the Wrens.

Kirkland Stayed Just Long Enough

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The San Francisco Giants are in the National League lead today, two games ahead of the Milwaukee Braves, because Manager Bill Rigney didn't take rookie Willie Kirkland out of the game fast enough.

About the time Rigney was telling himself he ought to pinchhit for the Alabama-born right fielder, Kirkland belted a 400-foot, two-run home run in the ninth inning Wednesday night to provide the winning runs in the Giants' 7-6 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Giants started the inning trailing 5-4.

"I don't want to take Bob Schmidt, my catcher, out and he follows Kirkland," said Rigney today. "I've already got the batting order so mixed up that Marv Grissom is batting in the leadoff spot."

"So I figure Kirkland's got to go. But before I can figure the next move, Kirkland's at bat, the count's a ball and a strike."

Willie, 24, belted reliever Dick Farrell's next pitch for a home run. Farrell, the loser, had allowed two earned runs in his last 21 innings of pitching.

"I'm a genius," Rigney went on. "I was thinking so hard I didn't know what to do. But Willie did. Maybe I'll let him do the thinking from here out."

The victory, coupled with Milwaukee's 7-4 loss to the St. Louis Cardinals increased the Giant lead to two games over the world champions.

Rain Cancels Three EL Games

By The Associated Press
The Eastern League's problem of rescheduling postponed games was further complicated Wednesday night when three were rained out.

Forty-five have been postponed this season by the weather. Club owners held a special meeting in Reading Tuesday and decided that doubleheaders were preferable to extending the season.

In the one game Wednesday night at Springfield, the Giants defeated Allentown 3-1. Dick LeMay, a $25,000 bonus pitcher from the University of Michigan, gave up six hits and four walks in the first three innings for Allentown's only run, then settled down and pitched hitless ball the rest of the game.

John Weekly and Jose Pagan drove in Springfield's runs.

Lancaster at Albany, Binghamton at Reading and Williamsport at York were postponed.

College Cuties Impress on Tv

CHICAGO (AP) — Lightweight Bobby Scanlon, who cut classes at City College of San Francisco to score a unanimous 10-round decision over Chicago's Bobby Rogers Wednesday night, is a bit uncertain about his plans for the ring.

"The only plans I have right now," said Scanlon, who remains undefeated in 29 fights, "are to visit my friends in my home town in Buffalo. Then, I'm going into the California National Guard at Camp Roberts for several weeks."

Scanlon, 22, a freshman student in physical education, made his national television debut in his lightweight bout with Rogers, also 22.

Neither Scanlon nor Rogers landed any telling blows up until the ninth. Then Scanlon staggered Rogers with his right and pummeled him almost at will.

Scanlon weighed 133½ to Rogers' 134.

Former National Open champions in the field include Lloyd Mangrum, Dick Mayer, Jack Fleck, Ed Furgol, Julius Boros and Dr. Cary Middlecoff.

Doug Ford, golf's second leading money winner of 1957, is the defending champion in the 55th Western Open.

Chez Emile scored two runs in the bottom of the eighth to hand Alart's Service its first City Softball League setback, 5-4, creating a tie for first place.

Hilltop Rest knocked off Chappie's Taxi, 5-1, on Jerry Green's four-hitter to tie with Alart's at 4 wins and 1 loss each.

Pat & George's notched their second victory, whipping U. S. Van Lines, 5-2, as Hank Passante belted Corky Van Vliet.

Gets Pinch Single

Key hits by Charley Farley and Bob Tracey broke up the Chez-Alarts contest, after the losers had gone ahead, 4-3, in the top of the eighth.

With one out and a man on second, Farley delivered a pinch single to send the tying run across. He went to second on a single by Link Crosby and rode home on Tracey's long solo swat.

P. Buttercova went the route for Chez Emile, yielding eight hits, including a double and two singles by Jack Houghtaling. Every man in the lineup hit safely for Chezies in a 17-hit barrage against Joe Venuti. B. Casella had a double and homer for Alart's.

P&G picked up 11 hits off Passante and pecked away in four of their six turns at bat. Percy Green stroked three singles for P&G. D. Slater singled and doubled.

Close Out Season Today

Marlboro Central Stops Onteora Behind DiCapua

Onteora Central lost its fifth straight game yesterday, a UCLAL encounter to Marlboro, 8-3, at Boiceville. The Indians wind up the season today at Saugerties.

The outcome had no bearing on the UCLAL race since Wallkill wrapped up the championship Tuesday by beating the Indians. It was the last league game for the Boiceville team.

Coach Tom Wheeler used freshmen and junior varsity players in place of varsity starters and the move proved effective for three innings.

Tom McCrosson started on the hill and baffled Coach Jack Kroh's boys for a spell, but then they connected with his tantalizing stuff and came up with four runs in the fourth to take a 5-3 lead. Three more in the following frame clinched it. Norm Beggs, the regular first sacker, relieved McCrosson.

Dom DiCapua, Marlboro's ace fireballer, went all the way. He had trouble in the early innings, but found his fast ball in the last four innings to hurl shutout ball.

McCrosson banged out two hits off DiCapua which drove in two of the runs. Two errors set up the third run. Doug Swartz, DiCapua and Sam Mandia paced the hitting attack against the two Indian hurlers.

Russ Glass Hits First Home Run

Two big innings were all the Canfield Electric Braves needed to polish off the V.F.W. Pirates, 7-3, Wednesday in the National Little League.

Russ Glass struck the first home run of the NLL season with one aboard.

Wayne Bock and Ed Mills formed the winning battery. Pete Perry and Bruce Ackert worked for the losers. Five of the Braves—Bob Cavano, Wayne Baxter, Richie Kelder, Larry Guess and Wayne Bock—stroked doubles.

Players to Pick All Star Squads Under New Method

BALTIMORE (AP) — American and National League players will start choosing their own all star teams by ballot on June 22.

In addition to the active players, the managers and coaches will also vote for the stars they consider the best to represent the majors in the silver anniversary game here July 8.

About 500 are expected to take part in the balloting, which will be completed about June 25. The teams will be announced June 29.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick met here Wednesday with officials of both leagues and the Baltimore Orioles, who play host to the game in Memorial Stadium.

Frick authorized the Orioles to arrange for the public ticket sale. Details are expected to be announced next week.

This is the first year the players will have a chance to pick their representatives in the mid-season classic.

Cincinnati Farce

The former habit of letting fans choose up sides worked pretty well until last year. Then fanatical Cincinnati fans deluged the ballot box and it looked as though eight Reds might take the field against the American Leaguers.

Frick arbitrarily put three Cincinnati players on the bench and filled their places with stars from other clubs.

This year the players, managers and coaches will vote for a full team in their own league except for pitcher. The eight receiving the most votes will start the game and play at least three innings.

Managers of the 1957 World Series teams, Fred Haney of the world champion Milwaukee Braves and Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees, will name 17 additional players including the pitchers. Managers must have at least one player from each club on the star team.

The game is scheduled for 1 p. m. (EDT) Tuesday July 8. If rain forces postponement, the game will be played at 8 p. m. that night, or 10:30 a. m. Wednesday or 1 p. m. Wednesday, depending on when the weather clears.

Big Luke Easter, putting on a one man show in the International League, did everything but win the game for Buffalo last night.

Havana won the game 6-5 on Dan Morejon's home run in the eighth.

Easter slammed a three-run homer to put the Bisons ahead in the sixth. When he came up again in the eighth, Vincent Amor's first pitch was behind Easter's head. Easter flung his bat at the surprised hurler.

As both benches emptied onto the field to join the fray, Havana catcher Enrique Iquintero got in Easter's way and caught a left to the face thrown by the Bisons first baseman. After the fracas was over the big first sacker was put out of the game.

In the other games, the Miami Marlins beat the Rochester Red Wings 1-0 in ten innings and the Toronto Maple Leafs blanked the Columbus Jets 6-0. The Richmond Montreal game was postponed because of rain.
